OPEN 23 BIDS FOR ADDITION TO FAIRFIELD HIGH SCHOOL

Twenty-three bids were opened Tuesday evening for additions to the Fairfield Elementary and High School to provide 11 new classrooms, a new kitchen and a cafeteria, but awards will be withheld until December 14 to permit the board, architects and the bonding counsel to study the bids.

Seven bids were submitted for the general contract, eight for heating, two electrical and six for plumbing.

The building program and furnishings are estimated will cost between $400,000 and $500,000.

Low bidders were: General, O. H. Hostetter Associates, Hanover, $280,700; heating, Boak Company, Mechanicsburg, $45,363; plumbing, Boak Company, $29,985; electrical, Miller-Liskey Electrical Company, Hagerstown, $53,450; sewer, Waynesboro Construction Co., $71,877.

Nine elementary rooms will be added on the east side of the property on which the present schools are located and will form a third wing parallel with the present elementary section. The one-story structure, which will be 197 x 106 feet, will be built of brick and cement block to conform with the present buildings. It was designed by Buchart Associates, York.

Two science rooms will be erected at the rear of the court opening between the present high school and elementary buildings. The corridor connecting the two buildings will be extended 67 feet to join the new elementary section. A cafeteria and kitchen will be added on the opposite side of the enclosed corridor midway between the three wings for efficient access.

MRS. D. LONG GIVES RECITAL OF XMAS MUSIC

Mrs. David Long, a private teacher of voice and piano, gave a recital of Christmas music at a meeting of the Gettysburg sub-league of the Woman's League Tuesday afternoon in the Student Union building. Accompanied by Mrs. Scott Moorhead, Mrs. Long gave a program of contemporary composition in addition to some of a traditional nature.

Included in the program were: "No Candle Was There and No Fire," Liza Lehmann; "No Lullaby for Mary's Son," Joseph Clokey; "Carol of the Sheep Bells," Richard Kountz; "Lullaby of Christmas Eve," F. Melius Christianson; "The Carol of the Cricket and the Star," Alfred Johnson, and "The Virgin's Slumber Song," Max Roger. She concluded with "Rejoice Greatly" from "The Messiah" by Handel. Her numbers were very well received by the league members. Following each group of solos she had the group sing carols, led by Mrs. Henry M. Scharf, Mrs. Howard Koons and Mrs. Harold Glad.

BOOK OF MEMORY
Mrs. Robert Fortenbaugh, vice president, presided at the business meeting, due to the illness of the president, Mrs. Franklin R. Bigham, with 70 members present. Mrs. Carl A. Hanson read for the devotional period her favorite Christmas fable, Reports of the secretary and treasurer were given by Mrs. W. E. Ramsey Jones and W. E. Hornor.

Mrs. Robert Weaner reported that the name of Mrs. John P. Koons had been placed in the Book of Memory for her son and daughter-in-law, Rev. Dr. and Mrs. Robert W. Koons, and that the sub-league had honored Mrs. Norman Richardson for her services as president by placing her name in the Book of Honor. She also reported that the following names were presented at the "Shower of Stars" at the convention in November: Book of Students, Janet Channing Richardson, by her parents, Dr. and Mrs. Norman Richardson; Ronald Bessor, by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Bessor; Book of Jewelry, Lois Ann Bender, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George R. Bender, by her grandmother, Mrs. George A. Bender; Book of Memory, Arthur Cleveland Kurth by his son, Arthur L. Kurth, and Dr. Henry W. A. Hanson by Phelps, Richard, Peter and Eliza.

Two Are Injured In $2,000 Crash

Two persons were injured and damage totaled $2,000 when two cars collided a half mile south of Abbottstown on the Hanover Rd. at 6:45 o'clock Tuesday night. State police said Samuel E. Starnier, 21, New Oxford R. 1, was driving south and Mrs. Dorothy Myers, 33, Littlestown R. 1, was headed north when the two autos collided. The drivers were the only occupants of the two cars.

The drivers were removed to the Hanover Hospital in the East Berlin ambulance. There Mrs. Myers was admitted as a patient with a deep laceration of the scalp. Starnier was treated at the hospital for lacerations about the head and discharged. State police are continuing their investigation.

RESERVE UNIT IS ASSIGNED TO HOWITZER BN.

The 82 members of Adams County's Co. D, 1st Battle Group, 313th Infantry, will become Battery C of a field artillery howitzer battalion, 157th Brigade, under the new reorganization of the Army Reserve.

Capt. Robert W. Black announced the change at Tuesday evening's drill of the unit at its training center along the Fairfield Rd. just west of here and said that it is anticipated the complete change-over of the unit from an infantry to an artillery unit will probably take about six weeks.

By that time, the outfit should have its new training schedules and possibly equipment to begin its training as an artillery unit. In the meantime, the drills will continue in all likelihood along matters that are the same in both infantry and artillery.

"GOOD NEWS" HERE

The information was "good news" to the Reservists who, like all other members of the 79th Division, had been awaiting information concerning the change since it was announced last week by the Pentagon that the 79th Division was to be inactivated but for which details were not forthcoming until Tuesday.

With the abolition of the 79th Division and its replacement by the 157th Brigade a total of 41 companies throughout the state are being disbanded. While Co. D disappears, it is replaced here by the artillery unit which will be made up of the same men, according to present plans.

The change will apparently give the town two howitzer batteries. The local National Guard unit has been a howitzer battery for some years.

MAY ESTABLISH CP CLASS HERE

Plans to establish a training class in Gettysburg for children with cerebral palsy, if personnel can be obtained to operate the center, were announced today by Leslie D. Parks, executive director of the United Cerebral Palsy of Pennsylvania.

The class would be operated for 12 children ranging in age from 3 to 12, some of whom are now being transported to the York Center for training, Parks said. The local class will probably operate two days a week for 2½ hours each day.

Use of suitable quarters for the class has been volunteered by a

Local Stores Well Stocked With Gift Items For Women

Plain or fancy, ridiculous or sublime—that's what Gettysburg stores have for women this Christmas!

And while they have great stocks of practical apparel, they also have such glamorous items as velvet lounging trousers, fur collars and chiffon nightgowns.

A recent visit to Milady shops here revealed that no women this Christmas should be without any variety of items necessary to make this a "gay and colorful" holiday. Most of the stores are showing a profusion of red apparel and sequined and otherwise jeweled accessories.

IMPORTED SWEATERS

For instance, cocktail dresses in almost any color Milady desires are available from $12.95 up. They come in assorted styles and colors, and are guaranteed to add immeasurably to an atmosphere of excitement through the holiday season. Knit suits and gay-colored flannel dresses also start at $12.95. Imported Italian mohair

TWO GHS GIRLS SELECTED FOR EASTERN BAND

Two students of the Gettysburg Area Senior High School Band have been selected for the All-Eastern Division High School Band to be assembled at the music educators' national conference eastern division biennial meeting in Atlantic City next March 1-4.

Miss Jean Kime, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Kime, 142 E. Water St., and Joyce Schwartz, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Schwartz, Littlestown R. 1, have been chosen as members of the 300-piece band which will perform in Convention Hall, Atlantic City, on March 4.

JEAN KIME

Both girls have participated in the Adams County Band, district band and regional band, each of which is held annually and is sponsored by the Pennsylvania Music Educators Association.

The girls have been chosen for this "honor band" on the basis of musicianship, participation in music festivals, recommendations from their band director and geographical location, according to Kenneth C. Hays, director of bands at GHS, who said, "Both girls are fine musicians. They play well and, above all, they have enthusiasm for their instrument and they are most cooperative in the bands. I recommended both girls very strongly for this position and I am very proud to have Gettysburg represented in this band."

The All-Eastern Division Band is sponsored by the National Interscholastic Music Activities Commission of the Music Educators National Conference.

QUINCE BLOSSOMS

The Indian summer weather is getting some of the plants confused. A Japanese quince at the home of Mrs. Walter Dugan, Littlestown R. D., has come out in full blossom, apparently convinced by the weather that spring is here. Mrs. Dugan's daughter, Geneva Dugan, who works in Gettysburg, brought a sprig of blossoms to The Times office this morning.

More Campaign Expenses Listed

Attorney Eugene R. Hartman spent $1,079.16 in his almost successful campaign for assemblyman from Adams county, according to his expense account filed with the county election board.

The account lists one contribution, $30 from his father, Lloyd R. Hartman. The expenditures were for advertising, postage, printing etc.

The Adams County Council of Republican Women spent $411.63 in the recent campaign, according to its report filed by Treasurer Mrs. Ruth A. Frey. The money went for advertising, postage, envelopes etc.

The Citizens for Scranton-Van Zandt Committee spent $200.41, according to the report of Treasurer George H. Louser III. Income included $200 from the state Scranton-Van Zandt committee and 41 cents from Treasurer Louser. The expenditures were $94.50 for ads, and the remainder went for such items as rental of a room, signs painted for the window, flags, displays, etc.

RAIL SERVICE HERE MAY END WITH MERGER

The Exchange Club Tuesday evening was told that, unless the public opposes pending railroad mergers, Gettysburg stands a good chance of losing its railroad.

Carroll B. Smith, secretary of the club and a local employee of Western Maryland Railway, told the club of his attendance at a convention in St. Louis last week of railroad employees and at a hearing held by the Baltimore Public Service Commission concerning the proposed merger of the New York Central and Pennsylvania Railroads.

Smith said the railroads were "brainwashing" the public into thinking that rails will fold unless they merge. At the convention he was told the railroads throughout the United States made over one billion dollars last year after all fixed expenses had been paid.

$55.50 FROM CONCERT
The secretary said that if the New York Central and Pennsy merge there is a good possibility that Gettysburg will lose its only track within three years, because the business here will not justify running trains into Gettysburg.

Smith said that it is hard to get people to public meetings to protest against the merger and for this reason the "dire distress" call by the railroads is overplayed in the press.

Al Sterner reported that the club sold $55.50 worth of tickets to the symphony performance. Vice President Robert Ziegler was in charge of the meeting.

E. Donald Scott Is Back At Desk

County Commissioners' President E. Donald Scott was back on duty this morning after an absence of a number of weeks recuperating from a heart ailment.

It was his first day of work and on his physician's orders he returned home at noon. He anticipates another half day's work as commissioner Thursday during the monthly visit to the county home.

A relatively light calendar was before the commissioners this morning. Most of the time was taken up with meetings of officials and employees, with Vincent J. DeFrank, director of the Municipal Employees Retirement System, who explained the new retirement plan which will go into effect for the county in January. Much of the meeting was devoted to answering questions pertaining to individual options under the pension plan.

Commissioner Scott, on his return to duty, praised the staff of the Warner Hospital and the physicians for "the outstanding treatment and kindness they show." He added that the "board of directors of the hospital should be highly commended, because the hospital would not be what it is without the devoted work of its board."

TWO COUPLES LICENSED

Marriage licenses have been issued at the courthouse to the following couples:

Earl Russell Bollinger, son of Harry Eugene Bollinger, Abbottstown R. 1, and the late Mrs. Bollinger and Janet Mae Reid, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne William Reid, East Berlin.

George William Shellehamer, son of Mr. and Mrs. George E. Shellehamer, East Berlin R. 2, and Nancy Averil Bechtel, daughter of Mrs. Mabel K. Bechtel, Summerdale and the late Alfred Bechtel.

The Rose Ann Shoppe, 38 York St., open evenings until Christmas.

5 GETTYSBURG HIGH YOUTHS GET FHA HONOR

Five Adams County youths, all products of the agriculture department at Gettysburg High School, have been named to receive the Keystone Farmer degree of the Future Farmers of America in January in connection with the State Farm Show at Harrisburg.

It marks the first time in many years that all of the county recipients of the "Keystone Farmer degree," top honor given to FFA members in the state, are students of one school.

One of the youths, Charles W. Dutrow, 20, Gettysburg R. 5, son of Mr. and Mrs. Norman V. Dutrow, graduated from the local high school last June. Now working at the farm of Roy Weaver Jr., he is a past president of the local FFA, a county winner in the Sears Roebuck swine raising contest and is now a member of the Gettysburg Young Farmers.

Another of the youths is the second in his family to win the honor. Riley Redding, 17, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carroll J. Redding, who is secretary of the local high school FFA and a Senior there, and assists his parents in operation of a 302-acre farm, is the second member of the family to receive the Keystone Farmer degree. His brother, David, who a few years ago received the honor, later also won the national "American Farmer" award.

The three others who will receive the Keystone Farmer degree are David C. Bucher, 18, a Senior and a son of Mr. and Mrs. Mark R. Bucher, Cashtown, who assists in operation of his parents' 600-acre farm and in custom work and who is treasurer of the local FFA chapter; Richard E. Simpson, 18, a Senior, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph R. Simpson, Gettysburg R. 5, who operates a 210-acre farm and is vice president of the local FFA and president of the Adams-Franklin area FFA, and Robert C. Spangler, son of Mr. and Mrs. Levi J. Spangler, Gettysburg R. 4, operators of a 324-acre farm, who is 17, a Senior, and president of the local FFA chapter.

SENIORS TO GET COURSE IN C-D FOR 12 DAYS

The 160 Seniors at Gettysburg High School on Thursday will begin a course in individual, family and community protection taught by instructors who this evening complete their training in Civil Defense at a five-week course given at the Biglerville High School.

Teachers from all parts of the county have been taking the course being given at Biglerville under sponsorship of the state Department of Public Instruction and the state Civil Defense organization to train instructors for classes to be held in all parts of the county for groups and organizations whose members wish facts about safety measures in case of nuclear attack.

High School Principal Charles E. Tressler said Gettysburg High is one of the first in this area to give this training to its Seniors. The course will cover 12 school days, ending December 21, and upon satisfactory completion of the course each Senior will be awarded a certificate.

The course for the students is being staffed by faculty members. The group includes: Gene Albright, Paul Burkholder, John O'Brien and Bruce Robinson. The instruction will occupy one class period per day for 12 days. The schedule of Problems of Democracy classes has been changed to some extent to permit scheduling of the C-D course, Mr. Tressler said.

WILL IS FILED

The will of H. T. Boarts, late of York Springs, has been entered for probate at the office of the county register and recorder. Two sons, Raymond H. Boarts, Thurmont, Md., and William C. Boarts, Greensburg, are executors of the $30,000 estate. Among bequests are $200 each to the Whitesburg, Pa., Presbyterian Church and the Indiana, Pa., Presbyterian Church.

MORE DEER IN TOWN

Two deer visited Gettysburg Tuesday but apparently stayed only a short time. Mrs. Jay Johnson, Seminary Ave., at 11:15 o'clock Tuesday morning reported to borough police that two large deer had passed her place headed east on Seminary Ave. toward the center of town. They spent 15 minutes in the backyard of the home of Bernard J. Baker, Springs Ave.

Clarence Ferris, Littlestown, Dies

Clarence F. Ferris, 42, Littlestown R. 1, died at 1:10 o'clock this afternoon at the Warner Hospital shortly after his admission. He is reported to have suffered a heart attack.

The deceased was employed as a truck driver for Charles B. Reaver and Sons.

Funeral arrangements are incomplete.

SOLON CLAIMS STATE USURPS LOCAL RIGHTS

Senator D. Elmer Hawbaker today declared that township officials "have surrendered their local rights to the state and have permitted bureaucrats to buy our freedoms with our own money."

Hawbaker laid the blame for the encroachment of state and federal government on local affairs at the morning meeting of the 45th annual convention of Adams County's township supervisors, auditors, assessors and tax collectors in the courthouse. More than 100 township officers attended.

Speaking on the proposed plan for rewriting the constitution of Pennsylvania, Hawbaker said, "If this document is rewritten, the people of Philadelphia and Pittsburgh will do it," and warned that local township powers "would be completely dissolved." One of the first offices of local government to be abolished, he said, would be that of justice of the peace. "And township supervisors are also very likely to go." He explained that proponents of a new constitution would reduce the state's 67 counties to 16.

"The state is moving in," he

GHS STUDENTS' PAPERS READ TO HISTORIANS

Three former students of American history taught by Jacob M. Sheads at Gettysburg High School were the speakers Tuesday evening at meeting of the Adams County Historical Society at the seminary "Old Dorm."

The program brought praise from members and officers for the outstanding work Sheads has carried out over a period of years as history teacher at the school and a promise from Sheads that the papers on local history prepared by his students as part of their courses over the years will be turned over eventually to the historical society.

For the 1963 school year, Sheads said, the students will not write on local history but instead will devote their efforts in original historical research to preparation of studies of the lives of the 120 generals who were with the two armies at Gettysburg a century ago. Sheads noted: "We know what the generals did here. The papers to be prepared by the students will be on what they did before and after Gettysburg."

CHURCH TORN DOWN

Mary Alice Rich presented a paper on "George Lashells and the Reformed Dutch Church of Conewago," which she and Maren Peterson prepared for Sheads' history class. As with all of the papers prepared by the student historians, the article included a number of pictures of the scene today including the site of the Dutch Reformed Church of Conewago on the south side of the Lincoln Highway at the end of

Samuel G. Spangler, 88, President Of Times And News Publishing Co., Dies

SAMUEL G. SPANGLER

Samuel George Spangler, 88, 112 York St., retired manufacturer and president of The Times and News Publishing Company, died this morning at 10:30 o'clock in the Warner Hospital.

Mr. Spangler was removed to the hospital about 9:30 o'clock Tuesday evening in an ambulance after suffering a rupture of an aneurysm of the abdominal aorta. His condition remained critical throughout the night.

He had attended a meeting of the board of directors of the First National Bank Tuesday morning and was planning to attend a bank dinner tonight at the Hotel Gettysburg.

The deceased was born in Mt. Pleasant Twp. on November 8, 1874. He was a son of the late John Henry and Susan Maria (Hoffman) Spangler. He attended White Run School and at the age of 13 started work in a grocery store at E. Middle and S. Stratton Sts.

FORM PARTNERSHIP

In 1900, Mr. Spangler and the late J. Price Oyler formed the partnership of Oyler and Spangler and engaged in the manufacture of commercial fertilizers. Later they handled feeds and spray materials. They erected the plant that is now the Central Chemical Company's establishment on Lincolntonway East at the Hummerston Rd.

Mr. Spangler was for a time a director and local manager for the Central Chemical Company before his retirement some years ago.

For many years he was a director of the First National Bank of Gettysburg and some years ago helped organize the former Lincoln Trust Company of Gettysburg which was located across Chambersburg St. from the First National on the square.

ONLY PRESIDENT

Mr. Spangler was the only president The Times and News Publishing Company ever had. He was elected in 1923 when the company was formed and purchased the paper from the late W. Laverne Hafer.

In 1929 Mr. Spangler was Adams County's treasurer, having been appointed by the governor of Pennsylvania to fill the vacancy in the office caused by the death of George W. Reichle. For 14 years he had served as assessor in Gettysburg's First Ward.

MARRIED IN 1895

The deceased was one of the first presidents of the Gettysburg Rotary Club, serving in that office in 1924. He was a member of the Gettysburg Chamber of Commerce and fraternally was affiliated with the Gettysburg lodges of the Elks and the Odd Fellows. A number of years ago he was active in the local council of the POS of A and served as its treasurer for 14 years.

He was a member of St. James Lutheran Church.

Mr. Spangler and the former Mary Etta "Mollie" Oyler were married September 3, 1895. Mrs. Spangler died April 30, 1949.

There is one son, Howard A. Spangler, an official of the Central Chemical Company, residing at Harrisonburg, Va. He arrived in Gettysburg about noon today and assisted with arrangements for his father's funeral. There are four grandsons and 18 great-grandchildren.

A nephew David A. Oyler, 162 York St., was reared by the Spanglers. Miss M. Helen Spangler, Chambersburg St., is a niece.

Funeral services will be held Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Bender Funeral Home with his pastor, the Rev. Dr. Paul L. Reaser, officiating. Interment will be in the Evergreen Cemetery. Friends may visit the funeral home Friday evening from 7 to 9 o'clock.

3 ENLIST IN NAVY

Three Gettysburg men have enlisted in the U.S. Air Force. They are: Harry T. Sease Jr., 135 Chambersburg St.; Harold V. Ray, R. 4, and John H. Herrington, Theta Chi fraternity, Gettysburg College and Troy, Pa., who is qualified to enter Officer Training School.

YOUTH CENTER TO SOLICIT ON SATURDAY

The members of the Gettysburg Youth Center Saturday will go door to door here seeking donations toward a building fund.

Completion of plans for the canvass was made Tuesday night at a meeting of the adult and youth committees of the Youth Center at its present site on the third floor of the merican Legion home, Baltimore St.

Betty Reed was named chairman of the campaign and the members of the Youth Center are asked to meet at the Legion home before 9 o'clock Saturday morning to receive instructions for the canvass which is scheduled to last until 4 p.m.

TO GET COFFEE SALES

John Settle of the adult committee said the building fund totals $629.05 and it is hoped that the canvass will raise several hundred dollars.

All of the young people soliciting for the fund will carry identification showing they are authorized to make the collection.

Settle also said a number of restaurants in the community have promised to donate the proceeds from coffee sales on Saturday to the building fund.

At Tuesday evening's meeting the youth committee of the joint adult-youth group reorganized. Jeanne Bowling was named president; James Logan, vice president; Debbie Washington, secretary; and Steve Shoemaker, treasurer.

BIRTH ANNOUNCEMENTS

At Warner Hospital
Mr. and Mrs. Donald A. Gilbert, Fairfield, son, today.

Mr. and Mrs. Tim Crouse, R. 1, son, Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Joseph Myers, Thomasville R. 1, daughter, Tuesday.

NURSES' AIDES GIVE HOSPITAL NEW SERVICE

Plans to establish a volunteer-manned information station at the Warner Hospital were outlined Tuesday evening at a meeting of the Red Cross nurses' aides at the home of Mrs. LeRoy H. Weinbrenner, Baltimore St.

Under the plan the nurses' aides and other organizations will be asked to volunteer for duty at the station which, starting in January, will be open from 11 a.m. to 5 p.m. and from 6 to 8:30 p.m. daily. The attendants at the station, among other duties, will have charge of the "visitor cards" for the patients. At present each patient is allowed two visitors at a time. To regulate the number of visitors, cards are given them. When one returns a card it is given to the next person seeking to visit that patient. At the present the nurses on duty handle the cards for the visitors.

POSTPONE CLASS
At Tuesday's meeting, the aides volunteered for the duty and a schedule is being set up listing hours and dates for the various aides to participate in the program.

Eighteen attended Tuesday's session at which the captain, Mrs. Joseph Riley, expressed her thanks to those who assisted with the giving of flu shots at Gettysburg College in October. She also announced that the new training class for Red Cross aides has been postponed until more members can be secured for the class.

Mrs. Philip Noble and Mrs. Charles Jacobs were named as a nominating class to report in February.

'63 Commission Member Expires

WILLIAMSPORT (AP) — J. Mark Good, 57, Williamsport postmaster since 1950 and a member of the Pennsylvania Commission for the observance of the 100th Anniversary of the Battle of Gettysburg and Lincoln's Address, died at his home Tuesday about 12:45 p.m.

Good had served as assistant city editor of the Williamsport Sun-Gazette prior to taking over as postmaster. During World War II he had served in the office of dependency benefits.

He was well known for his activities in state and national Sunday School and YMCA basketball activities.

He is survived by his widow, a son and a daughter.

Postmaster Good was here November 20 for the testimonial dinner held at the Hotel Gettysburg for the anniversary commission.

BURY MRS. BAKER

Funeral services for Mrs. Maude E. Baker, 81, Abbottstown R. 1, widow of Amos Baker, died Sunday at the home of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar N. Nace, Abbottstown R. 1, were held this afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Feiser Funeral Home, New Oxford. Her pastor, the Rev. John Z. Martin, officiated. Interment was made at Mumment's Meeting House Cemetery, East Berlin R. D. The pallbearers were William and Ralph Eisenhart, Roy Grove, Martin Yohe, Lloyd Swope and Richard Bennett.

STOCKS RALLY

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market ploughed through some stiff resistance, continuing its rally early this afternoon despite losses by steels. Trading was heavy.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks at noon was up .8 at 242.7 with industrials up 1.9, rails up .1 and utilities up .2.

Fractional gains among key stocks outnumbered losers. A few blue chips gained a point or more and some of the "glamour" issues rose 2 or better.

Weather

Extended forecast for Dec. 6 through Dec. 10:

Western Pennsylvania — Colder weather Thursday will continue into the first of next week with only minor day-to-day changes; temperatures will average near normal. Precipitation will average about a half-inch melted as snow flurries Thursday and periods of snow again about Saturday and Monday.

Middle Atlantic States — Temperatures will average near normal; colder Thursday and cold over the weekend followed by rising temperatures the first of the week. Precipitation will average from a quarter to three-quarters of an inch occurring as showers about Saturday and again the first of the week with snow likely in the mountains; scattered snow flurries possible in mountains Thursday.

Eastern Pennsylvania, southeastern New York, and New Jersey — Temperatures are expected to average near or slightly above normal; cooler early in period and again before the end of the period, milder during mid-period. Precipitation may total about a half inch, occurring as showers at beginning of period and about mid-period, with occasional showers or snow flurries lingering over the mountains through the period.

NEHRU FLIES TO WAR ZONE FOR CONFABS

NEW DELHI, India (P) — Prime Minister Nehru flew to northeast India today for talks with army commanders and speeches to the population recently threatened by the Chinese Communist invasion.

Nehru was accompanied on the two-day trip by Defense Minister Y. B. Chavan and several generals from army headquarters in New Delhi.

The party stopped first at Guahati, in Assam.

They were expected to fly later to Tezpur, headquarters for the troops facing the Chinese Communists.

ISSUES WARNING
At Guahati, 70 miles down the Brahmaputra River from Tezpur, Nehru told a public meeting the people of northeast India had stood up well to the Chinese threat.

He warned the country faced a long struggle against the Chinese aggression. He said the five-year plans for economic development will continue despite the defense effort.

While in Tezpur, Nehru will check on whether the Chinese are carrying out their promise to withdraw their invasion armies behind the McMahon Line frontier.

There has been no official announcement on the situation since Nehru said Monday the Chinese appeared to be thinning out their troops but were not withdrawing advance units.

SOLON CLAIMS

declared, "and state directives are becoming more and more frustrating."

He accused "technicians" who are political appointees and are "almost never qualified," of "making policies and enforcing regulations." He cited the Department of Labor and Industry, Health and Highways as being guilty of these practices.

Hawbaker believes that the function of these state departments should be in an advisory capacity, and should serve local township officials in making the decisions and improvements necessary to communities.

"But if you supervisors refuse and fail to take the responsibility of running your own districts properly, then the state will surely come in and take over," he the betterment of their individual warned. He said the final decision on public matters should be the sole responsibility of supervisors.

RESULT OF FAILURE
He warned that centralized government will "certainly lead to the collapse of our democracy," and warned that "dictatorship is the next step." He said the passing of responsibility from local to state, and eventually to federal officials, is the result of the failure of local elected officers to face the voters.

"It is so much easier," he said, "to pass the job of raising taxes on to someone higher up, who in turn passes it on to a political appointee who is not obligated to the taxpayer and never has to worry about being re-elected officer."

He told the group that "no other elected officials anywhere have the power which is given to supervisors under our state constitution." He urged them to exercise these powers in the establishment and enforcement of sewer, water and zoning regulations "to prevent the state from coming in and doing the job for you."

ISSUES WARNING
He added that "we have been kidding ourselves into believing that we can go on spending without paying," in his warning that Pennsylvania already has "taxed everything except bald-headed men."

Milton W. DeLancey, state secretary of the supervisors association, attacked Act 561 as an example of centralized government which local officials could have avoided having thrust upon the public. He also assailed Act 442 which regulates the prevailing wages paid for public works.

He warned that "eventually we won't need to elect representatives, congressmen or senators to Harrisburg," and predicted that appointed department heads will dictate our needs and our methods of providing them.

He urged the group to "use the services of elected representatives" by letting them know what local areas want and need.

President Mearl Heikes announced the following committees: Nominating, Ellis H. Rentzel, Wilbur Trump and Fred L. Leas; resolutions, Lewis E. Bair, D. L. Hoshelhorn and Howard Waybright.

The group adjourned at noon for a turkey dinner at the Methodist Church and resumed the afternoon sessions at 1:30 o'clock with an address by Roger W. Stoy, director of municipal services, Harrisburg. Also appearing on the afternoon program were Homer C. Bolan, editor of the Township News; John H. Jamison, assistant district township engineer, and Harold E. Myers, district township engineer.

Peking Condemned By Italy's Reds

ROME (AP)—Italy's Communist party, the biggest in Western Europe, bluntly condemned Peking today and pledged solidarity with Moscow.

Giancarlo Pajetta, one of Italy's top Reds, turned to a Chinese delegation at the Italian Communist congress here and said his party unanimously "condemns your unjust position."

The 900 delegates rose to their feet in a cheering ovation that left no doubt where Italy's Communist party stands in the Moscow-Peking ideological dispute. The men from Peking remained seated, silently scribbling on a pad.

Pajetta's speech was the sharpest and most open denunciation of the Chinese since the congress opened Sunday.

Littlestown 3 MEMBERS INDUCTED BY ROTARY CLUB

New members of the Littlestown Rotary Club, the Rev. William Hendricks, LeRoy W. Bish and Malcolm B. Tebb, were installed at the dinner meeting Tuesday evening at Schottie's Hotel. Paul E. King, Luther W. Ritter and L. D. Snyder spoke on Rotary ideals and related general information on Rotary International. They also presented the new members with their credentials. The program was in charge of the classification and membership committee, James L. Rhoades, chairman.

President Howard A. Daum presented a new American flag to the club. It was announced that the local club expects to realize over $200 from the appearance of the Pittsburgh Symphony Orchestra, sponsored by the gas company, at the Gettysburg High School on Monday night. This money will be used for charitable purposes.

Dr. Charles Glatfelter, dean and history professor at Gettysburg College, will guest speaker at the meeting of the Littlestown Rotarians next Tuesday at 6:15 p.m. at Schottie's. His subject will be "Adams County and the Civil War."

The program is being arranged by the international service committee, composed of Fred W. King, chairman, Arthur E. Bair Sr., Thomas C. McSherry, George P. Smith, John D. Thrush and P. Emory Weaver.

One hundred four veteran patients at the Samuel G. Dixon State Hospital, Mont Alto, were presented gifts from Mason and Dixon Memorial Post No. 6994, Veterans of Foreign Wars, and its Ladies' Auxiliary, when the annual visit was made there on Sunday afternoon by the auxiliary. Each veteran patient received writing paper, ball point pen, homemade salted peanuts and homemade cookies. The unit also took 100 dozen cookies, 160 novels and puzzles for the children at Mont Alto.

The following represented the auxiliary for the visit: Mrs. Patricia Kuhns, unit president; Mrs. Helen Garner, hospital chairman; Mrs. Mildred Weaver, Mrs. Rebecca Weaver, Mrs. LaRue Gosnell, Mrs. Grace Rose, Miss Helen Jacobs, Mrs. Maude Weddle, Mrs. Ruth Miller, 21st District president, and Mrs. Virginia Lauer, both of Gettysburg.

Approximately 150 junior and senior high school students attended the annual Sadie Hawkins Day dance held on Friday evening in the Maple Avenue school auditorium. Dancing was to recorded music. Prizes were given for those attired in the most appropriate costumes for the occasion. There were various contests with records as prizes and door prizes were given. Refreshments were served. The affair was sponsored by the Littlestown Junior Chamber of Commerce, assisted by the service clubs of the community, and members of these groups served as chaperons.

"WE WALK TOGETHER"

As we walk together . . . my heartstrings begin to swell . . . and it seems as though I'm captured . . . in a mystifying spell . . . all around me there is music . . . and red roses burst in bloom . . . roads are lined with smiling faces . . . there is not a trace of gloom . . . every breeze is soft and tender . . . each is like a warm caress . . . filling me with all the wonders . . . I needed to make happiness . . . so I'm drifting on a dream cloud . . . is this make-believe or real . . . or am I just part and parcel . . . of the things true loves feel . . . whatever the case may be, dear . . . these moments give untold pleasure . . . as we walk along together . . . mine is life's most priceless treasure.

Four Deer Roam In Littlestown

Littlestown hunters who went far afield for deer Monday were convinced that they should have stayed home.

While they were tramping through the woods, four deer were roaming through the streets of Littlestown.

A five-point buck was seen in the vicinity of the parking lot at the Windsor Shoe Co. on Newark St.

Three deer were discovered in the back yard of the W. H. Dern property on S. Queen St. One jumped through a window on the enclosed back porch of the first-floor apartment, and then jumped out another window, leaving a trail of blood. The apartment is occupied by Mrs. Margaret Thomas but she was not home at the time.

Policed Financing Is Urged By Banker

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Pennsylvania banking secretary Robert L. Myers Jr. has urged tighter control of credit sales and creation of a new agency to police consumer financing.

Myers told a state senate subcommittee Tuesday the new agency should have power to issue subpoenas and conduct hearings into complaints against finance companies.

The subcommittee, headed by Sen. Benjamin R. Donoluo, Philadelphia Democrat, is looking into financing abuses.

It heard a parade of witnesses Tuesday who complained of being victimized by finance companies and by other firms selling a variety of goods and services under easy finance plans.

Anticipates New Soviet Trap Soon

GENEVA (AP)—U.S. Ambassador Arthur H. Duan said today Soviet Premier Khrushchev soon may try to trap the West with another unilateral pledge to stop testing nuclear weapons.

Dean told the 17-nation disarmament conference the Soviet Union appears to have abandoned all pretense at actual negotiations to reach agreement on a nuclear test ban.

The Soviet Union clearly has decided it does not want a test ban at all, Dean said, "but is trying to maneuver the West in every possible way into some sort of un-inspected, uncontrolled moratorium arrangement."

12 WOMEN ARE GIVEN COURSE IN TAILORING

Twelve Adams County housewives Tuesday completed a 15-hour course in advanced tailoring at the YWCA under the direction of Adams County's home economist, Mrs. Helen D. Tunison. They represent the 18 home-maker groups throughout the county.

The advanced course climaxes a series of three held during the year for women who want to learn to sew. A basic sewing course is offered in the spring, followed by a session of more advanced accomplishment. The best qualified and experienced seamstresses are eligible to take the advanced tailoring course. Three classes of five hours each comprise the course.

COATS AND SUITS

Tuesday's session was concerned with the completion of coats and suits, some of which were lined and interlined. At the close of the instruction period, Mrs. Tunison said most of the garments were ready to wear.

The women provide all of their own equipment for the classes, including pressing pads and other items needed for expert tailoring.

Members who completed the course and the groups they represent are: Mrs. Roy Hammond, Gettysburg; Mrs. Clyde Crouse, Frogtown; Mrs. Norman Raubenstein, Conewago; Mrs. Horace Waybright, Mt. Joy Twp.; Mrs. Perdita Topper, McSherrytown; Mrs. Irvin Conover, Mt. Joy Twp.; Mrs. Raymond Goff and Mrs. Frank Breiner, New Oxford; Mrs. Robert Oyler, Gettysburg; Mrs. Kenneth Taylor, Biglerville; Mrs. Mary Irving and Miss Estelle Bankard, Conewago; and Mrs. Glenn Crist, Guernsey.

Stevenson's

DENY REPORT
The point of the article which attracted immediate attention was a report that Stevenson had dissented from the general agreement within the executive committee of the National Security Council last October that a naval blockade should be imposed around Cuba to block the flow of Soviet nuclear weapons into Cuba.

In a statement Monday the White House denied the report and declared that Stevenson had in fact "strongly supported" Kennedy's decision for the blockade.

Press Secretary Pierre Salinger also said there was "absolutely no question" but that Stevenson would remain as U.N. ambassador.

Stevenson himself assailed the article as "inaccurate and grossly misrepresenting my views."

The ambassador conferred with the President and it was in that meeting on Monday that he reportedly received the President's personal assurance of support.

There is a strong impression among other officials, however, that someone is "out to get Adlai." These officials seem to have no doubt that Bartlett and Alsop obtained their information on the various opinions expressed in secret meetings of the NSC executive committee from persons the newsmen considered to be fully competent and highly authoritative informants.

Man Paralyzed By Crash Injury

Theodore D. Gehly, 37, of 335 Smyser St., York, is in fair condition at the Hanover Hospital today after being seriously injured in a motorcycle accident Sunday.

Gehly suffered fractures of the ribs and a compressed fracture of the spinal cord. Gettysburg state police, who investigated, said Gehly and two companions were riding motorcycles on the Happy Rambler Track, located along the Hanover-Gettysburg Rd., west of Brushtown at 3:30 p.m. Sunday. Gehly's motorcycle went out of control on a curve, jumped an embankment and dropped a distance of 15 to 20 feet.

The injured man was taken to the hospital in the McSherrytown Fire Co. ambulance. Hospital authorities said Gehly's injuries have left him paralyzed from the waist down.

MRS. D. LONG

Dr. Martha Storek gave a detailed account of the recent convention at which she and Mrs. Bruce Macley were the delegates.

Mrs. Henry M. Scharf reported that $364.25 was realized from the Columbus Day tour of homes in the Country Club section and Mrs. Ingolf Qually announced that $222 would be received from the sale of tickets to the Pittsburgh Symphony concert.

Members were reminded that college plates, cups and saucers, in pink, blue and mulberry, are available for sale for Christmas gifts, as well as the record "Battle Cry of Freedom" by the college choir. Members of the Chi Omega sorority were in charge of the nursery.

The next meeting of the sub-league will be held Feb. 5.

Following the meeting tea was served, with Mrs. J. S. Locher and Miss Winifred Campbell pouring.

A surprise Christmas dinner party was held at the Lamp Post Tea Room by members of Auxiliary 27 of the Sons of Union Veterans Monday evening with 21 members and guests in attendance. Members had been notified to go to the GAR room at 6:30 p.m. Monday for a party and dinner. When they arrived, they learned there were reservations awaiting them at the Lamp Post.

The entertainment was provided by James Meyers, as leader of a "barbershop quartet" of Gettysburg College students who sang a group of selections. Then Santa appeared and distributed exchange gifts and oranges. Afterwards there was a social hour.

The party was given by the ways and means committee. The planning committee included the president, Mrs. Amanda Walker, and Mrs. Regina Staley. Guests included Councillor Arthur W. Warman; Miss Donna Shriver, daughter of National SUV Commander, and Mrs. Chester S. Shriver and Clark Staley. Commander Shriver and John Settle also had invitations but were unable to attend.

The next meeting of the organization will be held December 17 at 7:30 o'clock at the GAR building.

Grade School Is Damaged By Blaze

CAMP HILL, Pa. (AP)—Classes were suspended today at the Rossmore Elementary School in Lower Allen Township which was extensively damaged by fire.

The fire broke out last night in the space between the false ceiling and the roof of the one-story, L-shaped brick building, which was completed in 1959 at a cost of $500,000.

There were no injuries. The building was unoccupied when the fire started. Firemen and school authorities declined to estimate damage pending an investigation.

Reversible tapestry and leather bags combine luxury with common sense at $7.95 and up, and cut velvet handbags are making a big comeback at $4.98 and up.

Fancy underthings are always welcome where women are concerned, and the newest things are printed girdles, lace-trimmed pantslips and lace panties. Fabric and pigskin gloves start at $2 and lovely scarves are $1 up. Nighties from flannel to chiffon are $2.98 to $10.95.

DRESSY BLOUSES

White dressy blouses are $5.95 up and silk print dresses are $14.95.

And what woman would be caught without jewelry for every outfit? Rhinestone, pearls, gold and silver in necklaces, pins, earrings and belts are available from $1 to up and 'way up!

Anyway you look at Christmas this year, it's bound to match previous Christmases in selection, price and quality in local stores. At the peak of Saturday's temperature rise, one store was threatening to show its stock of bathing suits amid the holly and tinsel of Christmas decorations!

HAD APPROVED CUBA BLOCKADE

NEW YORK (AP)—U.N. Ambassador Adlai E. Stevenson said today that he had approved of the naval blockade of Cuba at least three days before the government decided to impose it.

Reiterating his denial that he had opposed the blockade, Stevenson said on the NBC television "Today" show: "I was emphatically in favor of it."

Stevenson previously had denounced as inaccurate a Saturday Evening Post article, co-authored by a close friend of President Kennedy, that portrayed Stevenson as having urged a soft line in the Cuban crisis.

He asserted today the article was "fallacious from beginning to end, in every detail."

NO RESIGNATION

Asked if he had been asked to resign his U.N. post, Stevenson replied: "On the contrary."

He did not elaborate. Stevenson said that despite his support of the blockade, he hoped that the time has not come in the United States when it is felt disputes should be settled by war rather than peaceful means.

"If that time comes, the world is doomed," he added.

Stevenson was asked if he expected President Kennedy to come forward in his support.

"I have had no discussion with him about it, I don't know what he is going to do, if anything," Stevenson replied.

He went on to say that President Kennedy "has and will have my views with candor and confidence."

FDR Jr. Is Cited For 2 Violations

WASHINGTON (AP)—Franklin D. Roosevelt Jr., 48, son of the late President, was cited for two traffic violations after a collision at 1:15 a.m. Monday, police reported today.

Capt. Albert Clark said Roosevelt, who operates the Roosevelt Automobile Co. here, was cited for colliding, and operating an automobile with a suspended license.

The Roosevelt car struck an auto driven by Louis Sotzky, 50, at a Washington intersection. No citation was issued for Sotzky.

Clark said he could not say what the citation for driving with a suspended license was based on.

A hearing on the case was scheduled for Dec. 21.

Roosevelt's office said he was out of town and not immediately available for comment.

SEE BATTLE TO LIBERALIZE 2 COMMITTEES

By WILLIAM F. ARBOGAST
WASHINGTON (AP)—Moves to "liberalize" two major House committees—Rules and Ways and Means—may get the new Congress off to a battling start next month.

On their success or failure depends the fate of much of President Kennedy's domestic legislative program.

Administration spokesmen disclosed privately today that they would fight to keep the membership of the powerful Rules Committee at 15. The committee will revert to its original 12-man size in the new House unless the House votes for the larger number.

NOW 15 AND 10

Membership was increased to 15 two years ago in a bid to add liberal votes and thus break the grip a conservative coalition had held for years.

The committee now is composed of 10 Democrats and five Republicans, with eight liberal Democrats normally—but not always—in control. Under the 12-man arrangement, a conservative coalition of two Southern Democrats, Chairman Howard W. Smith of Virginia and William M. Colmer of Mississippi, often teamed with the four Republican members to block administration bills.

The Rules Committee is a clearinghouse for bills approved by other committees. Without its approval, it is extremely difficult for a bill to reach the House floor. Even the enlarged committee blocked some Kennedy-backed bills.

RAYBURN WON

The enlargement was a prestige battle between the late Speaker Sam Rayburn of Texas and Chairman Smith. Rayburn won by a vote of only 217 to 212.

Unless a compromise is reached to avert another fight, the outcome next month may be a toss-up.

Leaders of both warring groups privately claim they have the votes. Both concede that the result may hinge on new members elected last month. There will be 33 new Democrats and 31 new Republicans in the new House.

DISAGREE ON STRENGTH

Conservative leaders claim the election added to their strength. Liberal spokesmen insist the opposite is true.

The Ways and Means Committee "liberalization" movement is not tied directly to the rules controversy but has a bearing on it. The committee this year side-tracked the President's medical care bill.

There will be two Democratic vacancies next year and liberals are backing Reps. Pat Jennings, Virginia Democrat, and Ross Bass, Tennessee Democrat, for the seats now held by two conservative Democrats.

QUINCE TREE BLOOMS

A quince tree is blooming in the yard of Mrs. Grace Deardorff, Orrtanna, she informed The Times today. Mrs. Deardorff said the tree bore fruit in the fall and now has a "half dozen blooms."

It is several feet high.

Little Girl Is Raped And Then Thrown To Her Death

Judge Finds Lodge Unfair To Member

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—The Pennsylvania Grand Lodge, Sons of Italy, failed to give Arnold R. Orsatti a fair and impartial hearing before expelling him on charges of slander, a visiting judge ruled Tuesday.

The ruling, by Judge J. Paul MacElree of Chester County, did not direct the lodge to reinstate Orsatti, but it was expected to have that effect.

The lodge, after a trial by a board of regular attorneys, expelled Orsatti in January, 1961. It accused him of making slanderous charges concerning the use of lodge funds.

Orsatti appealed to the highest tribunal within the lodge. Failing there, he took his case to Quarter Sessions Court. MacElree has had the case under advisement since hearing five days of testimony in September.

LONDON IS BLANKETED BY YELLOW SMOG

LONDON (AP)—A dense blanket of sulphurous yellow smog gripped the British capital for the second day today, raising a threat to health and making thousands late for work.

As commuter trains crawled toward the heart of the city, health authorities warned that babies and old people should be kept at home.

"The situation is potentially serious," said a spokesman for the Medical Research Council. "Smog particularly affects the very young, the very old and people with weak hearts or chests."

London's last great exposure to smog was in 1957 when 1,000 people died from chest and heart ailments during a three-day siege. Ten years ago the toll from an eight-day smog was at least 4,000, and by some estimates 12,000.

AIRPORT CLOSED

The capital's great airport was still idle after some 30 hours of inactivity. Shipping was tied up on the River Thames and cars were abandoned across the whole metropolitan area. Rail schedules had been discarded.

Fog blanketed much of the rest of England and spread into the south of Scotland.

In London, the sulphur dioxide content in the atmosphere was six times normal and the smoke concentration nine times its usual level.

CONVICTION IS UPHELD

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—The conviction of Abraham Minker, Reading, on charges he failed to pay $500,000 in excise taxes owed on gambling income, has been upheld by the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Third Circuit. The ruling Tuesday upholds Minker's March, 1961 conviction by a jury. He was sentenced to four years in prison and fined $35,000.

Out Of The Past

From the Files of the Star and Sentinel and The Gettysburg Times

Married 25 Years: Mr. and Mrs. B. E. Benner, Fairfield, observing their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary last Thursday. They celebrated the occasion by taking a trip through the south for several days.

Japs Seize Boat: American Consul General Clarence E. Gauss protested to the Japanese consulate today after a Japanese naval crew seized an American-owned steam launch and lowered the craft's American flag. The launch, owned by the China Foreign Steamship Company, an American firm and agent of the Roosevelt line, was seized as it lay along the French bund. It was understood Italian authorities also protested against seizure of two vessels flying the Italian flag.

The annual party for the faculty and staff of Gettysburg College will be held in the form of an old-fashioned box social in the "Y" building on the campus at 6 o'clock December 9. Dr. W. E. Tilberg will serve as auctioneer for the sale of the boxes. Arrangements for the party are being made by Mrs. Donald R. Heiges and Mrs. Lester O. Johnson.

Gettysburg borough acted upon important matters of business at a two-hour special service called for general purposes Thursday evening in the fire engine house. Most important among decisions reached by the borough fathers were: 1. Authorized the Gettysburg Fire Company to purchase a coding fire siren immediately with funds given the company by council a year ago and earmarked then for use in purchasing apparatus with councilman approval. The siren, already approved by council's safety committee, will cost about $1,000 installed and will be purchased and set up at once by a fire company committee; 2. Agreed on a policy of "marking time" in compliance with the 44-hour week law as applied to borough employees; 3. Approved minor changes in York Street plans to permit rushing the work by H. J. Williams, the state highway department's contractor, on this end of the five-mile Lincoln Highway stretch to be completed before the anniversary celebration here next year. Members of council heard that Borough Officer D. J. Wolff will not be back on duty for one month and that C. E. Woodward, special officer, is yet unable to work at his regular occupation. Both officers were injured in the crash of the borough police department car October 23. President C. W. Epley presided with Councilman Fred G. Pfeiffer, Charles T. Jacobs, William H. Scott, J. P. Oyler, William E. Biddle and Ray M. Hoffman in attendance. Secretary Ross R. Myers, Burgess Wilbur J. Stallsmith and Solicitor E. V. Bulleit were also present.

County School Head Resigns: The resignation of Professor J. Floyd Slaybaugh as superintendent of the public schools of Adams County has been revealed in an announcement from the office of the county superintendent of schools in the court house. At the same time it was revealed that the officers of the school directors' association of the county have recommended to Dr. Lester K. Ade, state superintendent of public instruction, the appointment of Professor Ira Y. Baker, assistant under Professor Slaybaugh, as superintendent for the remaining of the unexpired four year term until July 1, 1963. In his resignation Prof. Slaybaugh gave ill health as the reason for his action. He has been unable to be at his desk in the court house for about two months. It was learned today that there is a possibility that Prof. Slaybaugh will be considered for appointment as assistant to Prof. Baker should his health permit his return to office duties.

Today's Talk

RES-ECT

Respect is the name of the fellow who tends door for your conscience. His is the most sacred office in the gift of your character. For, when he "goes wrong," conscience becomes ill unto death.

Nothing of winning matters with respect gone!

Respect is your most faithful friend, your greatest guide, your most powerful protector — your safest pilot into port.

Nothing of winning matters with respect gone!

And respect is made at home. You are your own respect. For a man can be on no better terms with nobody than with his own self. The man without respect is a make-believe, a fraud — a counterfeit.

Nothing of winning matters with respect gone!

Respect yourself and other people will be compelled to respect you — and you will respect them. Respect is the beginning of wisdom. With respect on guard, you look people squarely in the eye without wavering.

With respect, active and unafraid, you go ahead to move away rubbish and obstacles and pave a path for other people to walk in from which they profit.

Nothing of winning matters with respect gone!

Think about this as you move about today. Let it keep you strong. Let it make you indomitable. Let it lift you from your present position into one higher up. Let it make of you a leader.

For —

Nothing of winning matters with respect gone!

Just Folks

MISSED

I'd give a lot to hear him say: "Who put that book of mine away?"

And grumble as he used to do Because I'd make the room anew.

I used to wish and wish in vain That needlessly he'd not complain.

Or in such fits of temper fly Because his things weren't handy-by.

But now, alone, the rooms I keep; Dust all the furniture and sweep; Put whatso'er I choose away And no one has a word to say.

I'd give a lot if he were here To ask for things which disappear.

And storm about the place and be So thoughtlessly annoyed by me.

May Change Name Of Coast League

SEATTLE (AP) — The Pacific Coast Baseball League may be given a new name now that Dallas-Fort Worth, Denver and Oklahoma City have been added to it.

Dewey Soriano, league president, said Monday a possible name change was one of the items on the agenda for a meeting in Salt Lake City Dec. 15 and 16.

Soriano said the PCL would be formally dissolved as an eight-team loop, dropping Vancouver, B.C., and reconstituted as a 10-team league at the meeting.

The new line-up was decided upon at the recent baseball convention in Rochester, N.Y.

Helen Amelia Orner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George G. Orner, Biglerville, R. 2, and Ivan K. Gulden, son of Mr. and Mrs. Luther A. Gulden, Biglerville, were united in marriage Friday afternoon in the chapel of Mercersburg Academy by the Rev. Ernest W. Brindle, Arendtsville, who performed the single ring ceremony, assisted by the Rev. Dr. Boyd Edwards, headmaster of the academy. There were no attendants. Mrs. Gulden wore a dress of wine colored transparent velvet with a hat of the same material and carried a corsage of yellow pompons with white chrysanthemums. The bride has been employed by the Biglerville National Bank for several years and Mr. Gulden is employed by the Rice, Trew and Rice Co., Biglerville. Following a week's wedding trip through the south they will reside temporarily at the home of the bride's parents.

George T. Raffensperger, South Stratton St.; W. Arnold Raffensperger and John Raffensperger, of Arendtsville, and Paul Raffensperger, of Harrisburg, are expected to return this evening from a hunting trip to Potter county. The last word received from the party of brothers said that they had killed three deer.

Miss Allene Irvin resumed her duties at the Laubheim Jewelry store today after having been confined to her home on Carlisle street for about ten days as a result of injuries suffered in an automobile accident about ten days ago.

PETROSKY IS SELECTED BY HOUSE DEMS

HARRISBURG (AP) — A coalition of Philadelphia and Allegheny County Democrats under pressure from Gov. Lawrence and U.S. Rep. William J. Green has elected Rep. Anthony J. Petrosky of Westmoreland County as minority leader of the House for the 1963 session.

The 50-year-old Slickville legislative veteran was chosen Tuesday over the bitter objections of Democratic legislators outside the two counties.

Between them the two county delegations delivered 53 votes, more than a majority in the 101-member Democratic House delegation.

HAD ENDORSED POLEN

Rep. James J. Dougherty, 69-year-old Philadelphia, was re-elected assistant floor leader. Newly elected were Rep. K. LeRoy Irvin, 43, Pittsburgh Negro attorney, as caucus chairman to succeed Petrosky; Rep. Marion L. Munley, Lackawanna County, caucus secretary, and Rep. Frank P. Crossin, 39, Luzerne County, chairman of the new Democratic Policy Committee.

The 16-member Allegheny contingent only last week endorsed for the floor leadership Rep. J. Dean Polen, 62, veteran from Washington County who has been Appropriations Committee Chairman the last four years.

Earlier Tuesday, the Allegheny group reaffirmed its support of Polen, who was reported the favorite of most of the other legislators. However, they changed their position after meeting with Lawrence.

Green's Philadelphia organization reportedly wanted Joshua Eilberg, chairman of its 37-member delegation in the House, to succeed Rep. Stephen McCann, who stepped out after four years to make an unsuccessful run for lieutenant governor.

However, Senate Democrats already had chosen Charles R. Weiner of Philadelphia for another term as their floor leader and most observers felt that precluded selection of another Philadelphia to lead the House.

Polen was nominated, but withdrew. He later was nominated for caucus chairman and again for policy committee but also declined to run for these posts.

Littlestown

CLASS OF '47 PLANS REUNION

The 15th reunion of the Littlestown High School Class of 1947 will be held on Thursday, December 27, at 6:15 p.m. at the Lyric Club, Hanover. The dinner is $2.50 a plate. Friday is the deadline for making reservations with Mrs. Kay Crouse Sentz, 25 Lumber St.

The Lutheran Church Men of St. Paul's Church held their December meeting on Sunday evening at the church. Miss Jill Weikert, a member of the congregation who was an international Christian youth exchange student to Germany last year, showed slides and spoke on that country.

Thomas E. Craig, president, presided for the business period. Tentative plans were made for the LOM to have a Lenten breakfast. It was decided that future meetings will be held quarterly instead of monthly and the date of the next meeting will be announced. Following the business refreshments were served by Donald B. Kump and Howard Trostle.

A holiday gathering in the form of a covered dish supper will be held by the Frances Segner Circle of the Lutheran Church Women of St. Paul's Church will be held at 6:30 p.m. on Thursday at the church. There will be a gift exchange.

Work on Christmas gift projects was begun at the meeting of Cub which is still known to other dwellers on our apartment house floor as "The miracle in Apartment 8-F."

"What do you think now are the hardest years of marriage?" "The first 25," she replied promptly, then added fervently, "I hope!"

Actually, the wear and tear of the years shows more on me than on her. I have grown fat and partly bald from weathering a depression, two wars and recessions.

But my wife, who had a streak of premature gray in her hair at marriage, now shows no sign of silver threads among the gold. Some years back her hair suddenly turned blonde and youthful looking overnight, an occurrence

Bullets Upset Albright 61-59 In Thriller; Meet Dickinson Here Thursday

A late minute rally on the part of Bob Hulton's Bullets enabled Gettysburg College to annex its first win of the season by squealing past Albright 61-59 Tuesday night on the physical education building floor.

Approximately 1,100 fans were on hand to see the Bullets build a 51-37 lead with 9:55 remaining in the game and then saw the Lions capitalize on the one and one foul rule and shave the lead to 51-48. Tom Pearsall hit from the foul line while Ray Sommerstad and Mike Klair took care of the goals.

Following a Bullet time out at the 4:49 mark, George Strouse landed a charity toss, but Pearsall and Norm Bausch connected on layups to knot the count at 52-52 with 3:17 remaining in the game.

Dick Hofmann pushed the Bullets ahead on a free throw and Strouse hit on a layup. Strouse went on to keep Gettysburg in front with two more goals and the Bullets managed to hold on to their two-point margin to the end.

PLAY IN STREAKS
Gettysburg's scoring came in streaks. The Bullets took an 8-lead after the first 5:31 minutes but the Lions roared back on 11 consecutive points to make it 12-8. After a nip-and-tuck battle, Gettysburg tallied the last 10 points of the half to lead 30-22 at intermission.

The Orange and Blue's defense was once again most effective in spots but not consistent as was its offense. Dick Hofmann played an important part in getting the Bullets rolling when the chips were down in the late moments of both the first and second halves. George Strouse started to connect in the last two minutes of the ball game to also help the Gettysburg cause.

Ted Koerner, who carried the lead in the first 20 minutes with 13 tallies, was high with 15 points. Strouse netted 14.

Norm Bausch topped the Lions order with 19 points while Tom Pearsall was held to 17. Bausch was the game's leading rebounder with 16. Gettysburg did much better from the floor than it did in its season opener against Temple. The Bullets landed 24 of 57 field shots for 42 per cent.

FROTH TRIUMPH
The Gettysburg yearlings gave the coaching staff and fans a scare before they opened their season with a stunning 72-65 verdict in the preliminary contest. The Little Bullets would build eight-point leads then let the opposition come within striking distance. Dave Yates led the Froth with 20 points while Dick Kaufman was high for Albright with 16.

Both Gettysburg teams will have to be at their best when they tangle with Dickinson College's JV's and varsity, respectively, Thursday night on the home floor. The preliminary game will get underway at 6:45.

ACES EASILY BEAT HERSHEY
Hershey was assessed a penalty before it even took the ice. That didn't help. Playing on Quebec's home ice didn't help either. And today the Aces lead the American Hockey League's Eastern Division race by three points.

The Bears were tagged with a bench penalty before the start of the game for changing the line-up. It didn't matter who they sent out because the Aces skated to an easy 7-3 triumph in the only AHL game scheduled Tuesday night.

The victory was the 18th straight on home ice for the Aces and boosted their edge over second-place Providence, which has 26 points. Hershey now is tied for third with Springfield, each with 25 points.

Michel Labadie and Jean-Marie Cossette each scored two goals for the Aces with Skippy Burchell, Guy Black and Ron Atwell sharing in the others. Pe'e Conacher, Larry Zeidel and Cleland Morton scored for the Bears.

On tonight's schedule, Providence is at Cleveland and Rochester at Pittsburgh.

BILL BRADLEY OF PRINCETON NETS 27 POINTS

By MIKE RATHER

An 18-year-old sophomore sought by over 60 colleges who is shaking the staid Ivy League, and a 67-year-old coach who has been overworking a large red towel for some 40 years. That's the unlikely combination sharing today's college basketball spotlight.

The sophomore sensation is young Bill Bradley, a 6-foot-5 product of Crystal City, Mo., who turned his back on his own backyard and wound up at Princeton. He scored 27 points in his first game and came back with 27 Tuesday night in the Tigers' 68-53 victory over Villanova.

The old man is Western Kentucky Coach Ed Diddle, who has been at the Ohio Valley Conference school for 41 years. He displayed all his towel-flapping tricks as the Hilltoppers wrote his 750th triumph into the record books by blasting Texas Wesleyan 101-66.

DUKE WINS

Bucking for a place in the spotlight were two of the nation's top preseason choices—second-ranked Duke, which rolled over South Carolina 95-63 in an Atlantic Coast Conference clash, and sixth-ranked Mississippi State, 90-55 conqueror of Arkansas A&M in its season debut.

In two Southern Conference games on a schedule heavy with interconference and interconference contests, Virginia Tech downed Richmond 76-68 for its 37th consecutive home court victory and defending league champion West Virginia opened conference play with a 100-74 triumph over VMI.

Elsewhere, Notre Dame beat Michigan State 92-85 after a basket by soph Jay Miller broke a tie. Laverne Tart led Bradley on a 90-57 waltz past North Dakota, Oklahoma set a school scoring record in a 96-83 decision over SMU, Vanderbilt outlasted Rice 80-68 and Oregon edges Washington 59-57 on a pair of foul shots by Elliott Gleason with 30 seconds left.

Princeton got off to a fast start against Villanova, Bradley connecting for 17 points in the first half, as the Ivy Leaguers built a 33-25 halftime edge and were never headed. Bradley wounds up with 10 for 15 from the floor, made all seven foul shots and was credited with eight assists.

No. 750 was easy for Diddle. Junior Darel Carrier hit on all seven of his shots from the floor in the first half and paced the Hilltoppers to a 59-35 halftime bulge over the Texans. Carrier, who scored 17 points in the first half, finished with 24.

Duke's Blue Devils shot at a 67 per cent clip against the Gamecocks and had little difficulty as Art Heyman scored 28 points and Denny Ferguson and Fred Schmitt added 14 each. South Carolina's one-eyed backcourt ace Scotty Ward, had 17 points.

Joe Wolf, Emory Golden and Ed Rodrock combined for 25 of the Bermudian points. Phil Stener netted 10 for South Western.

The Mustang jayvees raced to an easy 62-15 decision in the preliminary.

Next Tuesday Bermudian will meet Cumberland Valley on the Eagles' home floor.

SACRAMENTO, Calif. (AP)—The National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics will induct three players and two coaches into its football hall of fame this weekend.

Roosevelt Brown, veteran tackle for the New York Giants, will receive his award Sunday at Yankee Stadium in a ceremony before the Giants meet the Cleveland Browns.

Jimmy Carr, Philadelphia Eagles halfback, will also receive his award Sunday as a preliminary to the Eagles-Pittsburgh Steelers game in Philadelphia.

Marvin Tommervik, a fuel oil dealer at Parkland, Wash., who set total offense and passing records as a halfback for Pacific Lutheran in the early 1940s, and two coaches—Jess Dow of Southern Connecticut State and Fred Long of Wiley College at Marshall, Tex. — will be honored Friday night at a dinner in Sacramento.

The NAIA makes the awards each year in conjunction with the Helms Athletic Foundation of Los Angeles.

26 points. Hershey now is tied for third with Springfield, each with 25 points.

Michel Labadie and Jean-Marie Cossette each scored two goals for the Aces with Skippy Burchell, Guy Black and Ron Atwell sharing in the others. Pe'e Conacher, Larry Zeidel and Cleland Morton scored for the Bears.

Two Bribers Face Sentencing Today

By JACK CLARY

RALEIGH, N.C. (AP)—A St. Louis man, described as a financial ramrod in the basketball game-fixing scandal, and his key lieutenant faces sentencing today on multiple bribery charges.

Appearing before Judge Herman Clark in Wake Superior Court were Dave Goldberg, 46 and Steve Lekometros, 39.

They were convicted Tuesday at the close of a 10-day trial of bribing North Carolina State College basketball players to dump or shave points in eight games between December, 1959, and January, 1961.

Both took the verdicts impassively. Goldberg was convicted on 18 counts and Lekometros on 14. Each charge carried a maximum penalty of five years.

BIGLER TOPS L-TOWN 49-34

Biglerville High School blanked Littlestown in the third period and went on to open its basketball season with a 49-34 decision over the Thunderbolts Tuesday evening on the Cannons' floor.

The game also marked the opener for Littlestown.

Dan Bushman's Cannons jumped out to a 15-9 edge in the first quarter and led the remainder of the way. In the third period Biglerville iced the game with 14 tallies, while their opponents were unable to score.

Phil Pitzer, Bob Garretson and Dick Dull led the winners with 11, nine and eight points, respectively. Dale Bair and Jeff Breighner were high for the Bolts with nine and six.

The Littlestown jayvees salvaged part of the program by taking the preliminary 35-25.

Biglerville inaugurates its Blue Mountain League season at East Pennsboro on Friday. Jack Bream's Littlestown outfit next meets Kennard-Dale on the latter's floor next Tuesday.

BERMUDIAN 5 LOSES OPENER

Bermudian's veteran-less basketball squad suffered a 33-29 setback in opening its campaign Tuesday evening at South Western. The win was the second in three starts for the Mustangs.

The Eagles managed to gain a 7-6 margin in the first period but then fell behind 16-12 at halftime and were outscored by narrow margins in each of the remaining periods.

Joe Wolf, Emory Golden and Ed Rodrock combined for 25 of the Bermudian points. Phil Stener netted 10 for South Western.

The Mustang jayvees raced to an easy 62-15 decision in the preliminary.

PUTS TOUCH FOOTBALL IN LIMELIGHT

By JACK CLARY

Associated Press Sports Writer
NEW YORK (AP)—Touch football, often called the sport of the New Frontier, was thrust suddenly into the fore of the National Football Foundation's annual Hall of Fame festivities by no less a personality than Byron (Whizzer) White, associate justice of the Supreme Court.

Justice White, a former All-America at the University of Colorado and later a professional star halfback with Pittsburgh and Detroit, received the foundation's Gold Medal Award for outstanding contribution to football Tuesday night.

While tracing the history of football from ancient times until the present, Justice White suddenly changed his theme.

"Then came a major development—the game of touch football was popularized by a family in Massachusetts," he said.

The crowd of more than 1,500, including President Kennedy's brothers, Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy and Massachusetts Senator-elect Edward M. Kennedy, broke into laughter.

"RULES ARE VAGUE"
"The rules of the game are vague," continued Justice White and again the crowd laughed.

"The season begins in September on the banks of the Potomac and continues till May. Training is done on the sandy beaches of New England with the stipulation that the sand cannot be more than six inches in depth.

"I have never seen it because spectators are barred," he added, as the crowd roared again.

"But they say that even women are allowed to play.

"However, we will continue to watch developments of this game for some time to come."

Justice White, who was President Kennedy's first appointee to the Supreme Court, spoke out against the critics of football for demeaning the sport because of injuries.

"No game can carry on without accompanying dangers," he said. Justice White also spoke out against "commercialization" and an uncontrolled "will to win."

Twelve new members were inducted into football's Hall of Fame.

NEBRASKA TO BE IN GOTHAM

NEW YORK (AP)—Rugged Nebraska will oppose Miami of Florida in the second Gotham Bowl football game Dec. 15, rescuing the post-season contest with time running short.

The match was completed Tuesday night when the Boars of Regents and the Big Eight Conference approved acceptance of the bid voted by the Nebraska players.

Bowl officials were pleased by the acquisition of both the Miami Hurricanes, 7-3, and the Cornhuskers, 8-2, who are among the nation's top ten teams in passing and rushing, respectively.

Less than 15,000 fans watched Baylor defeat previously unbeaten Utah State in the first Gotham Bowl game last year. The event had been scheduled to get off the ground in 1960 but failed to make it.

Mount Cagers Face Baltimore At Emmitsburg

A pair of winless basketball teams will attempt to crash into the win column for the first time this season tonight at 8 o'clock when Mt. St. Mary's meets Baltimore University at Emmitsburg in the Mason-Dixon Conference lid-lifter for both.

The Mountaineers, defending Mason-Dixon titlists, have lost nonconference games to Hofstra 75-74 and Providence 72-57. Baltimore also is 0-2, having lost to Frostburg State Teachers 70-61 and Shippensburg State College 67-61.

LISTON MOVES AND STATES FIGHT PLANS

By HERB THOMPSON

ANNAPOLIS, Md. (AP)—Roger Staubach, Navy's Jolly Roger who says his first name had nothing to do with those Pirate flags the Midshipmen wore on their helmets in routing Army last Saturday, is already thinking about next football season.

He's planning to skip basketball, one of his favorite sports, in order to practice weightlifting and try to add some muscle to his arms and chest and some weight to his 6-foot-2, 193-pound frame.

Perish the thought, Army, but he thinks it will make him more effective. "I'll be stronger," he says.

GETS AP HONOR
The 20-year-old sophomore quarterback from Cincinnati was chosen by The Associated Press Tuesday as its Back of the Week for his four touchdown performance in Navy's 34-14 shellacking of Army.

He passed for two touchdowns and ran for two others, gained a total of 222 yards passing and running, and wound up the season with a total offense of 1,231 yards in seven games—only 17 yards shy of the academy record set by George Welsh in nine games as a senior in 1955.

Being named Back-of-the-Week was Roger's first national recognition, although he was chosen an All-America quarterback in high school at Cincinnati Purcell and in junior college at New Mexico Military Institute, which he attended for one year before entering Navy.

"JOLLY ROGER" LIFT
"It's quite an honor to be picked from all these fine football players in the country, but it's especially nice after an Army-Navy game," the young midshipman said of his designation.

One of Navy's psychological tricks to offset the publicity buildup of Army's Chinese bandit defensive unit was a skull and crossbones painted on the front of each Navy helmet, a copy of the jolly roger pirates would hoist just before boarding a ship.

Staubach said the Navy players didn't know about the helmets until five minutes before gametime, but the team got a lift from them. They were the brainchild of Navy Coach Wayne Hardin and equipment manager Ray Novelli.

Ships Collide In Thick Fog That Closed Three Airports

NEW YORK (AP)—Thick fog blanketed the New York metropolitan area Monday night and Tuesday, closing down all three major airports and contributing to a collision of two ships.

No one was hurt when a tanker and freighter came together off a Staten Island pier in New York harbor, but both ships were slightly damaged.

A Port of New York Authority spokesman said he could recall only six other times in the past 14 years that Idlewild, La Guardia and Newark (N.J.) airports were all shut down because of bad weather.

Ceiling and visibility at Idlewild were zero early Tuesday.

NO LANDINGS

The only aircraft to take off from Idlewild Monday night was a specially equipped Navy Constellation used as a radar picket. There were no landings.

The heavy fog blanket over Idlewild was similar to one which prevailed last Friday night when an Eastern Air Lines DC7B crashed at the airport on arrival from Charlotte, N.C. Of the 51 aboard, 25 were killed.

Most flights scheduled to land at the three airports were diverted to Boston, Baltimore and Philadelphia.

The fog slowed land travel. The New Jersey Turnpike reduced the speed limit on that superhighway from 60 to 35 m.p.h.

The fog in New York harbor was so thick that a Coast Guard patrol boat was forced to return to its dock before it could locate the spot where the British freighter Sarah Bowater and the American tanker Chemical Transporter had collided.

DISPATCH CUTTER

The Coast Guard later dispatched a cutter equipped with radar to the collision scene.

Officers of the Chemical Transporter reported that the tanker, anchored at the time of impact, received a gash at the port bow about three feet long and 16 inches wide, the Coast Guard said. A hole was knocked in the freighter on the starboard side.

A small tanker, Poling Brothers No. 14, ran aground in fog covering Northport harbor on Long Island, the Coast Guard said.

The severe storm in the Atlantic Ocean, after eight days, appeared weakening. Winds, tides and seas have diminished with the storm center drifting eastward some 350 miles east of Charleston, S.C. however, the effects of the storm still were being felt along the North Carolina coast.

The thick fog and haze also blanketed southeast Pennsylvania, especially the Philadelphia area during the night and early morning. The speed limit on the Pennsylvania Turnpike in the area was reduced from 60 to 35 m.p.h. The North Philadelphia Airport was closed late Monday night and the Philadelphia International closed early today.

MAY RESUME STRIKE TALKS AT LOCKHEED

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Talks may start again this weekend in the Lockheed strike. The subject, most likely, will be the same bitter deadlock: a union shop vote.

The strike itself has been temporarily halted. A federal court order prohibits picketing until Dec. 13. The court is to start hearings Monday on whether to order an 80-day cooling-off period under the Taft-Hartley law.

The union says it cooled off plenty — while waiting for a chance to strike. Last week's strike only lasted two days. But

U.N. BANQUETS AND PARTIES BUILDING UP

By TOM HOGE

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — "It's grim enough dealing with Cuba or the Congo all day," said the diplomat, staring glumly at the milling throng of drinkers. "To fight your way through this every night is a bit too much."

With 110 member nations determined to wine and dine each other before the General Assembly session ends soon, the average delegate usually winds up his day being jostled about a smoke-filled room.

The envoy first must stand in line up to half an hour to pay his respects to the host ambassador. Then he is free to battle his way through the packed room in search of a cocktail tray.

If the drink gives him courage to try the buffet, the guest at the picket signs are stockpiled, waiting.

Negotiators for both sides—Lockheed Aircraft Corp. and the International Association of Machinists—have indicated a willingness to resume bargaining.

There is no indication that either side will relent on ironbound positions on the union shop issue. The IAM wants workers to vote on it. The company refuses.

Monday's court action followed a request by President Kennedy to the Department of Justice to request an injunction.

The President earlier received a report from a three-man board of inquiry which he appointed last week to look into the Lockheed situation.

The International Association of Machinists ended a two-day strike against Lockheed last Thursday after President Kennedy invoked Taft-Hartley machinery.

Lockheed manufactures aircraft and missiles, among them the submarine-launched Polaris.

taches himself to another long line inching past the food tables. After receiving a plate of spiced beef or one of the volcanic curries that most U.N. parties feature, he has the final problem of finding a place to sit.

After a three-week round of U.N. receptions and banquets during his 1960 visit to the assembly, Soviet Premier Khrushchev told a newsman: "This life would make a stone sick."

Ten years ago the United Nations had fewer than 60 members. A delegate averaged a couple of small parties a week during the session. Now he often attends two or three affairs in one evening.

By the time the assembly is over he has gone to more than 80 such functions and consumed enough spiced food and strong drink to turn the ordinary stomach to stone.

He faithfully makes the rounds because diplomatic etiquette requires it, and he hopes to pick up useful information chatting with fellow delegates.

The late Dag Hammarskjold avoided social functions, but he once described the U.N. reception as a fruitful field for quiet diplomacy. His successor, U Thant, goes to parties when time permits and engages in informal exchanges he could never fit into his busy work schedule.

With the rapid growth of the United Nations, receptions have become so jammed that it is difficult for a jostled delegate to indulge in any quiet lobbying.

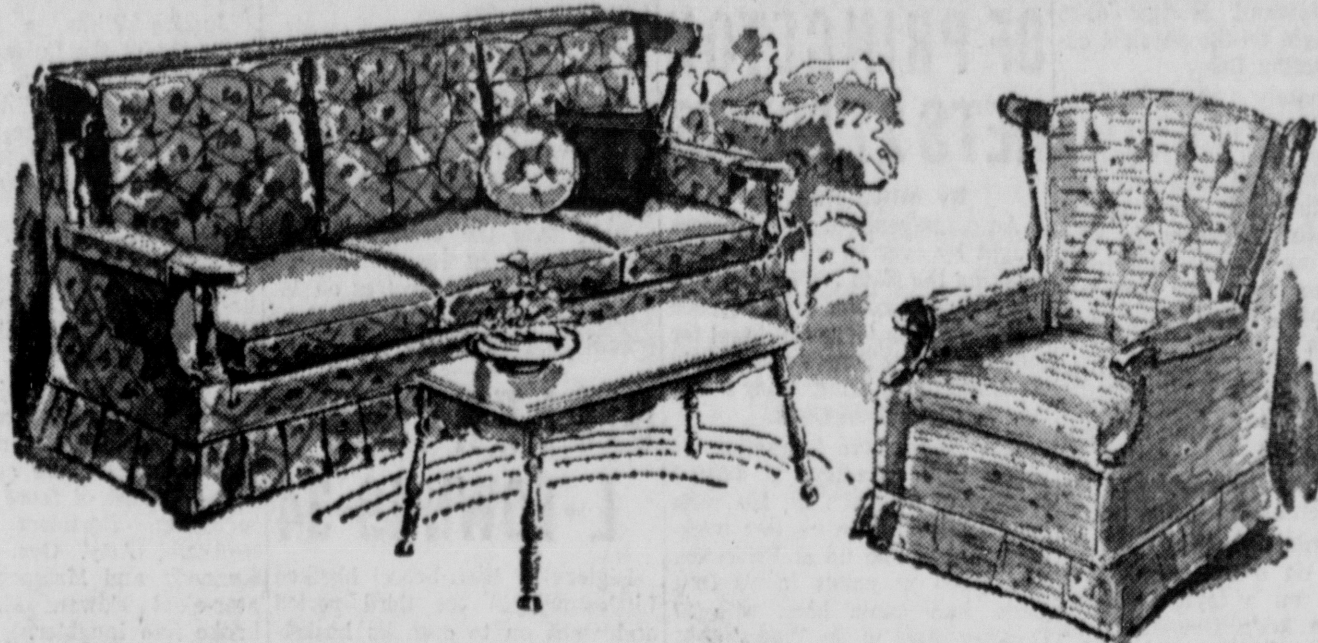

The growth of the world forum has posed an acute problem for the U.N. catering staff which handles parties at the East River headquarters.

"We can't accommodate more than 750 persons in the main dining room at one time," said Frank W. Reickert, who runs the network of bars and restaurants.

Countries with huge guest lists often solve the problem by holding their functions in New York's big downtown hotels. Oil-rich Saudi Arabia gives a glittering reception each fall at a rooftop room. Some of the wealthier African and Latin-American nations also hold lavish outside affairs.

If you put electric heat to work outdoors

ONLY ELECTRIC HEAT CAN DO IT!

Snow shoveling is a thing of the past, when you turn the job over to convenient, dependable electric heat. It's the most practical way to keep walks and driveways free from snow and ice.

Electric heat can be easily installed beneath the surface of your driveway, steps or sidewalks. You no longer have to dig yourself out of your garage on winter mornings, or get stuck when you return in the evening. Even more important, there's no danger of slippery, dangerous steps and sidewalks. You protect your family and guests from costly falls.

Electric heat means safety, protection and convenience outside your house, as well as indoors. Call us, or see your dealer, for complete details.

12 Hunters And 15,000 Deer Shot On First Day

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Balmy weather on opening day of the 1962 deer season was both a boon and a handicap to hunters.

Warm, sunny weather Monday sent more hunters to the field than on opening day last year, but the kill was just about the same for the first day of the 1961 season which was marked by rain and cold temperatures.

A forest fire on Barclay Mount in Bradford County slowed hunting in that area for about four hours.

SIX ALMOST
Even so, the State Game Commission gave a preliminary estimate of about 15,000 deer taken Monday. They included at least six albino deer.

A 23-point buck was reported killed in Crawford County and a 22-point in Mercer County. Neither of the successful hunters was identified. A commission spokesman said the largest known previously taken buck had 24 points, shot killed in Lycoming County in 1951.

12 HUNTERS SHOT

The commission reported at least one hunter killed by gunfire and 11 others wounded.

At least seven hunters died of apparent heart attacks.

Other casualties reported by the commission were two bears killed illegally and a bullet hole in a crude oil storage tank near Ridgway, Elk County.

A commission spokesman said the largest increase in the number of hunters appeared in northwestern counties. The turnout in other areas was about the same as in previous years.

700,000 LICENSED

Some 700,000 persons were licensed to hunt whitetail deer this year. They are expected to bag about 40,000 bucks before the season ends Dec. 15. Shooting is permitted between 7 a.m. and 5 p.m. daily except Sunday.

Many public schools in northwestern and north-central counties were closed for opening day and business boomed as thousands of hunters moved into the deer areas.

A lack of snow was bothersome to hunters who consider it important for tracking deer. Temperatures in many areas hovered near 60.

CONVICT BOYS OF SLAYING

BALTIMORE, Md. (AP)—Two 16-year-old boys awaited sentence today following their first degree murder conviction in the slaying of a school teacher who was found buried last summer near Pottstown, Pa.

Youth Judge Shirley B. Jones convicted Ivan B. Sedgewick and Albert S. Ruffin Monday after Monroe County.

Jacob Lingle, 42, Harrisburg, in Hills Grove, Sullivan County.

Clifford E. Reese, 69, Exeter, near French Creek State Park, Berks County.

Warren Younk, 41, New Florence R. 2, near Johnstown.

Arthur L. Wagner, 48, Fallentimber R. 1, near Altoona.

The two boys, both of Baltimore, could get life imprisonment or the death penalty in the slaying of Mrs. Corinne Selby, 41, also of Baltimore.

Youths hunting ground hogs discovered Mrs. Selby's body in a shallow grave near Pottstown last July 28.

Although the boys pleaded innocent at their trial, police said both admitted in separate statements that Mrs. Selby had been killed in Sedgewick's home four days before she was found.

Police said the woman, who had been taking care of the Sedgewick boy while his mother was away, had been struck on the head with a hammer and stabbed 13 times.

up only one case instead of two or more per episode.

Pat Harrington Jr., after a short time playing host on CBS' "Stump the Stars," is now out—conflicting professional engagements is the official reason—and Mike Stokely, who owns the show and used to be game leader, will take over. In addition, the show will feature "challenge teams" composed of stars. Featured players from other television shows will play the "regulars" on about half the programs henceforth.

OTHER CHANGES

One of the more fascinating changes coming up is the "replacement" of ABC's vintage "Cheyenne" on Jan. 7 with what the network calls a new show, "Dakotas." Actually, the shift in title becomes effective with the permanent departure of Clint Walker from the show after all these seasons in the title role, leaving the leads to the four fellows who have been acting in the series all this season.

Finally, there's "Fair Exchange," which will take at least three months leave of absence from CBS for major surgery—it will, in fact, be cut in half. Then, as a half-hour comedy, it is expected to return in March to the early Sunday evening spot vacated by "Password." The latter will take over the time left by the departing "Loretta Young Show."

SAUER TO RETIRE

HARRISBURG (AP)—Lt. Col. George M. Sauer, deputy commissioner of state police since April, says he will retire on Jan. 15.

Sauer, 59 and a 34-year veteran on the state police force, announced his decision Monday. He said he has no particular plans for retirement activity.

State Taxes Off In Last Month

HARRISBURG (AP)—State tax revenues in November were 2 per cent below expectations.

Despite the decline, total income for the first five months of the 1962-63 fiscal year are running ahead of estimates.

November receipts, the budget office reported Monday, amounted to $61,960,000, compared with estimates of $62,200,000. The chief loss was in sales tax returns which were $1,713,000 below estimates.

Total receipts for the five-month period since July 1 are $274,304,000, compared with estimates of $273,500,000.

TUCSON, Ariz. (AP)—More than 50 Titan missile workers required treatment Monday when a short circuit caused a brief fire and filled an underground silo east of Tucson with smoke and acrid fumes.

ANOTHER TAFT COMING ON U.S. SCENE IN JAN.

By HAROLD HARRISON

CINCINNATI, Ohio (AP)—Back in 1876 Alphonso Taft was appointed to the Cabinet of President U.S. Grant. Since then, except for a few years, a Taft has been a prominent figure in the federal government — executive, judicial or legislative.

Next January, another Taft will appear on the national scene. He is Robert Taft Jr., elected in November as congressman-at-large from Ohio.

"Young Bob" is the son of the late U.S. Sen. Robert A. Taft, three times an unsuccessful candidate for the Republican nomination for president but who became known as "Mr. Republican."

GRANDSON OF W. H. TAFT

He is the grandson of William Howard Taft who served one term as president, was a U.S. circuit judge, civil governor of the Philippines, and chief justice of the United States.

He is the great-grandson of Alphonso Taft, who served as an ambassador in addition to having been a member of Grant's Cabinet.

"Young Bob," 45, served four two-year terms in the Ohio House of Representatives.

His thinking on many political issues such as spending, taxation and foreign policy is close to that of his father.

NO CARBON COPY

"I have never tried to pattern myself after my father," he said. "After all, 10 years have passed and we have to think of the particular time."

There has been talk that Taft might seek in 1964 the U.S. senatorial seat now held by Stephen Young, a Democrat.

He says he is a firm believer that federal expenditures should be reduced except in the fields of defense and space age development. He does not favor tax cuts without a reduction in expenses. He urges an across-the-board reduction in government personnel.

WILL JOIN BROTHER

As for the United Nations, he says: "I mistrust the U.N. as a major determining factor in our foreign policy, although I believe we should work through the U.N. to maintain contact with other nations. I mistrust the present administration's disarmament policy."

When the new congressman goes to Washington he will join his brother, William H. Taft III, a former ambassador to Ireland who is now assigned to the U.S. Information Agency's selection agency to screen personnel for promotion.

TRAP OFFICER IN BURGLARY

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP) — A veteran city patrolman, who fellow officers trapped in the act of a burglary, said Tuesday 10 other policemen shared in the money he took in a series of thefts the past 18 months, Police Chief Frank Story reported.

William Marlowe, 40, a patrolman on the city force for 11 years, was arrested early Monday after he came out of a lumber company office.

Police said he admitted the marked bills he had in his possession were taken from a safe inside the lumber firm. Marlowe's superiors said they had put the money there to trap him.

Police continued to question him and they said he signed a statement implicating other patrolmen in his district.

The police chief quoted Marlowe as saying he had taken money from 20 places since June 1961, because he was in financial trouble.

REPORT 3 RED BOMBERS ARE OUT OF CUBA

WASHINGTON (AP) — The first three of the jet bombers Soviet Premier Khrushchev promised to have out of Cuba by Dec. 20 are being carried away from the island by a Soviet ship, the Defense Department reports.

It said Monday that U.S. patrol planes photographed Saturday three fuselages of the Ilyushin 28s on the deck of the Soviet freighter Okhotsk as it steamed off Cuba's northern coast.

"IL28 aircraft that have been seen on the island of Cuba are in the process of being withdrawn," Assistant Secretary of Defense Arthur Sylvester told a news conference.

CHECK DISMANTLING

He indicated that American reconnaissance planes checked on the dismantling of the bombers even before they were loaded aboard the Okhotsk.

He said U.S. intelligence information indicates that as of last Friday the Soviet bombers were being disassembled at San Julian airfield at the island's western end.

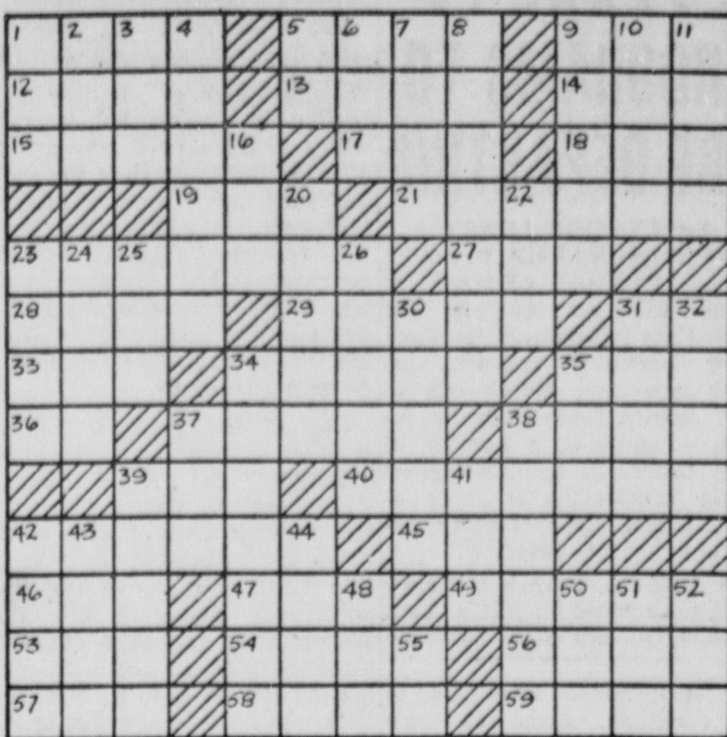

The Pentagon has put the number of the two-engine bombers at more than 20. Unofficial estimates have ranged as high as 35.

The bombers, capable of dropping a nuclear bomb 750 miles from their base were listed among the offensive weapons that President Kennedy demanded be removed from Cuba.

Orrtanna

ORRTANNA — The Young Adult Class of the Mt. Carmel EUB Church met Thursday at the church hall with Mrs. Clair Rebert, the teacher, as the leader. The program opened with a hymn and scripture and prayer by the pastor, the Rev. Alfred Gotwalt. The chapter from the study book on "Organized to Serve" was discussed by the Rev. Gotwalt, Mrs. George Haines, Cloyd Spence, Mrs. Gotwalt and Mrs. Rebert. There was also a discussion on evangelism. That portion of the meeting closed with a hymn and prayer.

President Cloyd Spence presided at the business meeting that followed and gave the secretary's report. Mrs. Rebert reported films secured for the Christmas party to be held Thursday, December 20, to which the entire church group is being invited.

The president announced committees and said that although the party will take the place of the regular December meeting, the election of officers will be held then so that new officers can take up their duties at the beginning of the year. The meeting closed with prayer and was followed by a social hour and refreshments. Mrs. George Haines served as hostess.

AVERTS WRECK

LANCASTER, Pa. (AP)—A deputy game warden was credited Tuesday with averting a possible train wreck on the Pennsylvania Railroad's main westbound track.

Railroad officials said the warden, Marshall Dussinger of Mount Joy, notified officials Monday after a nine-inch break was discovered in the track over Conweago Creek near the Lancaster-Dauphin County line.

CLEARFIELD, Pa. (AP)—Anthony Schober, 38, of Niagara Falls, N. Y., suffered a fatal heart attack Monday while hunting in Goshen Twp., about 18 miles northeast of Clearfield.

Coroner Robert Heath said Schober killed a deer and dragged it about one-half mile up a steep hill when he became ill. A companion went for aid but found Schober dead when he returned. Schober lived at 69 Deuro Dr.

A Volkswagen dealer is a man of many parts.

5,008 parts, to be exact. And most of them fit any Volkswagen ever made.

(Because most are interchangeable from one year to the next.)

Which gives us an enormous edge, and enormous depth.

We can repair any year VW. Or even build you a new one. All the parts are on hand or on tap.

(That's why VW service is fast and cheap.)

A fuel pump is $9.95*. A new fender, $24.95*. Plus installation.

But what impresses people most about our service is how we treat them. Like a customer. Even for a 10c fuse.

The VW is built like a $5,000 car.

Why shouldn't it get serviced like one?

KATANGA TOWN IS CAPTURED

LEOPOLDVILLE, the Congo (AP)—The central Congolese government today claimed capture of the north Katanga town of Kongolo, where about 1,500 gendarmes loyal to Katanga President Moïse Tshombe had been holding out since February.

Gen. Joseph Mobutu announced his central army troops penetrated the town last Friday and that it is now under his control. But diplomatic circles here thought it likely the Katangans still held the section on the east bank of the Lualaba River.

Two spans of a 500-yard road and rail bridge linking the two parts of the town have been blown into the river, and it was believed the Leopoldville troops controlled only the main part of Kongolo and the airfield on the west bank.

Kongolo, scene of the massacre of 19 Roman Catholic priests and two other Europeans by drunken central army soldiers in January, was recaptured a month later by Katangan armed forces.

Capture of Kongolo could help to bolster Premier Cyrille Adoula's Leopoldville regime in the face of strong parliamentary opposition attacks.

local church, he added. However, the principal deterrent to early opening of the class has been inability to secure qualified personnel to operate the center. Mrs. Beatrice Crowder, field service director of United Cerebral Palsy, said.

An instructor, an assistant and a volunteer assistant are needed to staff the center. Volunteers have offered their services, but UCP so far has been unable to secure women to take the paid positions.

The principal requirement for the instructors is that "they have a love for children. This is a training class, and thus the requirements are not as high as those which would be required of a teacher. It will principally be necessary to be able to play the piano a little and have a way

The Dutch Reformed, according to the paper, were temperate people. Friction arose between Lashells and the other members of the church and Lashells promised to "bring the church to dust." Eventually the congregation died off, Lashells got possession of the church and tore it down, using part of it for such structures as a smokehouse at his tavern. Two graveyards of the church are still in existence, Osborn's and White Run. Lashell's first wife is buried in Osborn's graveyard.

Tradition has it that there once was a graveyard beside the church along what is now the Lincoln Highway, but the bodies were later removed to Osborn's graveyard.

GETTYSBURG ADDRESS

Miss Donna Stone read her paper on "The Gettysburg Address: A Gem of English Literature." The paper was based on the statement of Lord Curzon on November 6, 1913, that Lincoln's Gettysburg Address was one of the three masterpieces of parliamentary eloquence. She wrote Oxford University and eventually received a transcript of the portion of the speech pertaining to Lincoln's Gettysburg Address.

Lord Curzon, according to the transcript, awarded "the prize for eloquence" to Abraham Lincoln noting that the Gettysburg Address is a "pure well of English undefiled," and holding that it is "more than an admirable piece of composition"—it is also a presentation of principles.

She also reported on five versions of Lincoln's Gettysburg Address. The first, written partially on White House stationery and foils, contained 239 words. The revision of the first which was the manuscript used on the platform here contains 269 words. The copy Lincoln wrote for Edward Everett contains 273 words and is the first to contain the words "under with children." Those who are interested should contact the state Employment Office, West St., to arrange for an interview with Mrs. Crowder.

God." Two other versions, including the fifth which is termed the "standard version" because it was the last written by Lincoln, contain 272 words, she said.

STORY OF CYCLORAMA

David O. Johnson presented a paper on "The Gettysburg Battle Cyclorama." The artist, Paul Philippoteaux, was paid $50,000 for the painting, but his expenses were great. He paid $2,500 for the canvas on which it was painted with the assistance of a staff of artists. The artist came to Gettysburg in 1882 for on-the-spot inspection of the terrain. He visited with various generals of the armies and then when the painting was first hung in Boston in 1884 he invited the officers to make criticisms and made a number of corrections. Later the painting, in crates, lay in storage outdoors at Boston. About 1913 a group formed to bring it to Gettysburg, where it hung for more than 40 years in the now razed cyclorama building on Baltimore St. before being restored and placed in the new Visitor Center.

Vice President George Olinger, who presided at the meeting, reported that permission has been secured from the seminary to place a sign on the Old Dorm stating that it is the home of the Adams County Historical Society and listing it as the first seminary buildings on Seminary Ridge and as a hospital during the Battle of Gettysburg. He also reported on plans to have a telephone installed at the dormitory and said permission had been granted to remove three trees from in front of the dormitory and replace them with two new trees. Completion of work about the ground level door on the south side of the building was reported.

Frank Newcomer reported $2,927.50 received so far from the campaign for funds to renovate the old dormitory. The organization's treasury balance was reported at $4,165.78.

Arthur Weaver presented rough hand-split oak lath, complete with mud and straw plaster and handmade nails from the Stallsmith house along the Lincoln highway east of here now being removed for construction of the new Route 15 around Gettysburg. He also presented the seal of the directors of the poor of Adams County, secured at the time of the sale of the county home; two books pertaining to inmates at the county home from 1870 to 1920 and a provisional tax list for 1767 for Hamiltonban, Straban and Tyrone Twps. provided by Hugh Bigham, Tenafly, N.J. Mrs. George Eberhart presented a copy of "The True Story of Jennie Wade."

Weaver and Charles Black reported on state police finding a broken tombstone and notifying Weaver. He deciphered the wording "Maria Black, 1829" and Mr. Black was called in. The tombstone was from Black's Cemetery and Black said he has returned it to its original site.

LIST DONATIONS

Dr. W. C. Darrah reported receipt of the Comfort family Bible from Mrs. Paul Spangler; a stock certificate for one share of the Gettysburg Railroad in 1859 from Mrs. Charles Hime, Reading, and a "Miller Photographic History of the Civil War" from Mrs. Lillie Sweatland. Other accessories included a carpet bag and a reed bag.

He announced that Attorney John MacPhail will speak next month on "Mary Jemison."

Dr. C. H. Glatfelter reported presentation of a piano made prior to 1859 from the Barriga family. The piano had been in the Mc-Millan house at the time of the battle here. Mrs. Guyon Buehler reported on location of the piano which had been on the stage of Ford's Theater; the night Lincoln was shot, and read a letter from the company owning it that it could be made available for display here in connection with programs.

Charles Diller reported on the printing of "Encounter at Hanover," the story of the Battle of Hanover preceding the Battle of Gettysburg. It is available, he said, at $4.50 a copy. He and Thomas Y. Cooper wrote the book.

Dr. Glatfelter said an American flag now in the historical society meeting room was donated by the Glatfelter family.

Let's Look At The Record

BURTON K. WHEELER
Famed Senator Who Saved Supreme Court
Is Now One Of America's Forgotten Men

By JIM DAN HILL, Ph.D.
President, Wisconsin State College, Superior

EX-SENATOR Burton K. Wheeler's memoirs are fresh from the press. It is a voice from the past but a breezy, friendly voice.

The Japanese bombs that sank the American Navy's battle line at Pearl Harbor just as certainly sank into political oblivion the brilliant political career of Montana's Wheeler.

Since he was beginning a new term in 1941, he did not receive the ballot box coup-de-grace until 1946. But his political influence perished at Pearl Harbor, December 7, 1941.

President Franklin D. Roosevelt never completely forgave Wheeler's saving the Supreme Court from becoming an appendage of the White House. To FDR, to whom defeat was always bitter, Wheeler's championing the court was a greater apostasy than being an isolationist.

FDR allowed fellow Democrat Wheeler no conspicuous role through World War II. Wheeler's defeat in 1946 was foreordained and predestined. The same fate overtook Sen. Gerald P. Nye, another "Son of the Wild Jackass," to borrow the phrase Ray Tucker popularized.

WHEELER was a better educated and with a far greater man than Nye. Both were equally dedicated to certain principles. Both were boldly outspoken. But Nye, with fewer facts and less imagination, often spoke without restraint.

Wheeler was never a man to forfeit the confidence of a client or a colleague through lack of knowledge. Moreover, Wheeler joins Winston Churchill in soothing self-assurance: "I was not always wrong."

It is in that spirit that the former senator from Montana, now age 80, has told his story to Paul F. Healy, a highly competent and smooth writer of political profiles.

The book ("Yankee from the West," Doubleday, $5.95) has appeared just in time to become a superb Christmas gift for a father or uncle.

WHEELER, born in Massachusetts, 1882, arrived in Butte, Mont., via Michigan University Law School, in October, 1905. He became an independent state legislator against "The Company" (Anaconda Copper) and a disciple of Thomas J. Walsh, an incorruptible attorney and liberal state politician in Helena.

His political fortunes soared with those of Walsh, U.S. senator, 1913-37. By 1923, Wheeler was donning the senatorial toga himself. He was to wear it without interruption until 1947.

Within a year following his entry to the Senate, he was teaming up with Wisconsin's Progressive Republican, Robert M. LaFollette, Sr. Wheeler became the vice presidential pick to LaFollette's presidential kite against Democrat John W. Davis and Republican Calvin Coolidge.

No Third Party ticket in American history has polled such a large popular vote; i.e., half the strength of the Democrats and a third of the strength of the winner, President Coolidge.

THEREAFTER, the junior Democratic senator from Montana was an ever present, scintillating figure in the loose alliance of mid-western liberals who became thorns in the sides of both major parties until FDR quietly pilfered all the liberal planks of their local and national platforms — except isolationism.

As rival vote getters, FDR is said to have envied and feared the skills and techniques of only two politicians: Senator Wheeler in the Midwest and Senator Huey P. Long, of Louisiana, in the South. But for Long's assassination, these two powerful Democrats might have wrought havoc with FDR's silently and well laid plans for his own 1940, third-term nomination.

Wheeler was unable to do it alone. He had become so distrustful of FDR's sincerity he was unwilling to consider seriously the silencing role of the vice presidential nomination that was eagerly accepted by Henry A. Wallace.

He might as well have gone for the vice presidency. That role could not have silenced him more effectively than did the war and a later involvement with the publication of a classified war department document. His political enemies within the administration were far from merciful.

THE BOOK is far from being documentary. At the same time it is not a quarrelsome apologia garnished with sour grapes. It appears to be the product of an alert mind and a sharp memory refreshed by a reference to pertinent documents.

It is rich in its intimate glimpses of the great and near great of those stormy political years: Chief Justice Hughes fingering an excuse for giving Wheeler a letter to be read into a public hearing against FDR's court packing bill; FDR's techniques for putting the pressure on and paying off pliant senators. For westerners, the reward was always a new and more expensive river dam.

Meanwhile, the ex-senator has no regret from becoming a statesman in oblivion. His Washington law practice, with his son, is quite lucrative; his wife and children are all healthy and doing well. He is happy.

Mr. Shnoo's Zoo

BY LUCRECE BEALE

Chapter Three
FLYING LESSONS

FOR THREE days and three nights, Mr. Shnoo worked with the reindeer but he could not teach them to fly.

"You can do it! You can!" insisted Mr. Shnoo. He spread his arms and leaped from rock to rock to show them what he wanted of them.

The reindeer were anxious to please. They listened to Mr. Shnoo's instructions; they ran to and fro; they even leaped over the low fence he built. But that is as near as they came to flying.

Mr. Shnoo set up a movie screen and showed the deer a movie of Santa Claus and his sleigh being carried over the rooftops by eight soaring reindeer.

"There!" exclaimed Mr. Shnoo. "If they can do it so can you."

The deer stared at the screen in astonishment. They could not believe that the graceful creatures skimming above the clouds were the same as themselves. When the picture was over they looked at one another in wonder but they were still earthbound and could not fly.

Mr. Shnoo took Horace, the herd leader, to the bird cage and left him there the whole day to watch the birds skimming among the trees. At the end of the day Horace had gained nothing but a crick in the neck from holding his head back so long. Mr. Shnoo rubbed Horace's neck with reindeer liniment oil. The next day he took him to the monkey cages.

"See, even monkeys can do it!" said Mr. Shnoo. "And they don't have wings."

Sure enough, the monkeys were gliding from bar to bar as if flying were the easiest thing in the world. The funny-faced creatures screamed at Horace, laughing at him for his great solid bulk that he couldn't lift off the ground.

Back in the reindeer enclosure, Horace was very sad and all the other reindeer were sad, too. They knew they were not beautiful and now they felt they were failures. Mr. Shnoo saw how they felt and he was filled with remorse.

He put his arm around Horace's thick neck. "Never mind," he murmured. "You are as you are. You needn't try to fly anymore."

He gave all the deer an extra big feeding and patted each one on his soft muzzle. Then he went to his office to send a message to Santa Claus.

"Sorry," he wrote. "I can't help you after all. My reindeer can't fly."

Then he went off to bed for it was late and he was very tired after all his efforts. He was cheerful but he couldn't help feeling disappointed. He had so wanted his deer to shine. And, of course, he had wanted very much to help Santa because it isn't every day that Santa asks help from anyone.

"Whatever will Santa do now?" wondered Mr. Shnoo.

He went to sleep and while he slept he had a dream. He dreamed that the reindeer—his own Shnoo's Zoo reindeer—were flying, all on their own, without the slightest difficulty. The dream was so real and so powerful it woke him and he popped out of bed crying. "Could it really be?"

He spread his arms to show what he wanted of them.

He shook his head and got back under the covers. "What nonsense!" he grumbled. A minute later he was out of bed again pulling on his trousers. "I'll just go have a look anyway," he said to himself. "Perhaps the poor creatures are in trouble."

He ran out of the house and off to the reindeer enclosure. There, by the light of the moon, he saw the most extraordinary sight.

The reindeer were not just flying—they were soaring! They somersaulted; they made hairpin turns; they shot down; they skimmed the earth and surged heavenward again. They flew in formation they flew solo; they zigzagged; they coasted. They hung motionless in the center of the heaven.

Mr. Shnoo rubbed his eyes. "Crookshank is right," he murmured. "I'm out of my head."

Weddings

McCartney—Trimmer

Miss Norma Jean Trimmer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Trimmer, East Berlin R. 2, was married to Eugene Richard McCartney, son of Mr. and Mrs. Martin McCartney II, Carlisle R. 6, in the Lower Bermudian Lutheran Church November 24 at 2 p.m. in a double-ring ceremony performed by the Rev. Norman L. Bortner, assisted by the Rev. Carl L. Warrick.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. Her sister, Miss Mary Alice Trimmer, was the maid of honor and the bridesmaid was Miss Pearl Dubbs, East Berlin R. 2, cousin of the bride. Martin McCartney III, brother of the groom, served as best man and the ushers were Charles A. Trimmer Jr., brother of the bride, and Lester McCartney, brother of the groom. Mrs. Roseella Warrick presided at the organ. The ring bearer was David Trimmer, brother of the bride and the flower girl was Debra Haas, Pipersville R. 1, niece of the bride. A reception was held at the bride's home for approximately 50 guests. The couple will live at 443 Mounted Route, Dillsburg. The bride graduated from Bermudian Springs High School in June and is employed at the East Berlin division of the Gettysburg Shoe Co. The groom graduated from Cumberland Valley High School in the class of 1961 and is employed at the Dillsburg division of the same company.

Guests were present from Pipersville, York, Carlisle, Mechanicsburg, Mt. Pleasant and Dillsburg.

A Lovelier You

By MARY SUE MILLER

HOLIDAY HAIRDOS. A flawlessly coiffed head does more for you than the dreamiest dress. Only remember how quickly dreams can turn to nightmares, and then imagine a terrific dress on a tousle-headed figure. It's enough to make you wake up screaming!

There is just no denying that, whatever you wear, you are presentable when your hair answers to the same description. Keeping the hair groomed is never a hit-or-miss affair, but is based on systematic attention.

If you would have a "best-dressed" head during the holiday season, now is the time to plot a grooming course. An efficient one follows:

Whether or not you are a solon devotee, block out time for the shampoos and sets that you will require before the New Year. Also schedule necessary tints, touch-ups, trims and permanents. If a perm is in order, make haste to have it. Most waves benefit from "aging."

If you have difficulty managing your locks between do's, make a study of hair-grooming aids. New ones offer highly-specialized control. Dressings, in gel form, build body and sheen, assets on which the success of the rounder, smoother styles depend. In after-shampoo rinses and setting sprays, innovations purport to unsnarl tangles and strengthen a set.

For keeping a set at peak performance, two hair tools show promise. One is an electric roller for bolstering sag in moments.

LAWYER ACQUITTED
PHILADELPHIA (AP)—B. Nathaniel Richter, 53-year-old prominent attorney, was acquitted here Tuesday of morals charges brought by a blonde teen-age model from Watsonstown, Pa.

Judge Emanuel W. Beloff found Richter innocent on all three counts, shortly after 18 character witnesses—15 of them attorneys—took the stand on Richter's behalf.

The other is a polyethylene brush with rounded teeth, so cleverly spaced that use accents waves. And thus dreams of loveliness becomes a reality.

RULE YOUR WAVES

What's your hair problem? You'll find a way to overcome it in my 16-page booklet, RULE YOUR WAVES. Advice includes: Beauty treatments for oily, dry and normal hair; ways to manage unruly locks; how to add color and highlights; tips on cutting, permanents and styling; grooming tricks. ## COUNCIL GETS NEW PROBLEM

VATICAN CITY (AP)—A more modern approach to the question of the nature of the church was urged Tuesday by many bishops at the Roman Catholic Ecumenical Council.

Speakers in a closed session in St. Peter's Basilica called the "De Ecclesia"—of the church—thesis the key topic of the entire council. It deals largely with the role of bishops in governing the church.

But there was a wide divergence of views over how it should be stated.

Some speakers, said a council spokesman, complained that the scriptural references in "De Ecclesia" lacked richness in illustrating points of Catholic doctrine.

The spokesman said others asked that the 11 chapters of the thesis be shortened—rewritten by a group of experts—for greater clarity.

James MARLOW Reports

The Associated Press

WASHINGTON (AP)—It's not only paper; it's people. Stamp a document "secret" or don't talk. The government has those two basic ways to keep information from the public. The excuse is the general good.

The idea is to prevent release of certain kinds of information which might hurt national security. Sometimes this is justified. Sometimes it's not and is overdone. Two examples of overdoing it:

BIRD PROBLEM

1. The Pentagon several years ago concealed information on the number of transport planes used to ferry officials abroad. The ban was lifted under protest from Congress.

2. The Migratory Bird Conservation Commission and the Indian Arts and Crafts Board had the right to make documents secret. This happened under President Eisenhower's administration. The reason wasn't sinister.

Some of his aides, in a grand gesture giving all kinds of agencies the right to withhold documents, forgot to exclude the bird commission and the arts and crafts board.

ENDLESS DISPUTE

The planes, the birds and the crafts illustrate the reason for the endless dispute between Congress and news media on one side and, on the other, the government and some of its overly secret-minded officials.

The squabbling now is with the Kennedy administration. But it has a history. From earliest times the government, if necessary, had the right to hold back certain military - diplomatic information. There were few restrictions before World War I. They multiplied from then on.

As soon as that war began, before this country was in it, President Wilson warned Army and Navy officers not to talk on Europe's military and political problems. When this country got in, two things happened: censorship and the first organized attempt to classify documents to restrict their release.

A year before the United States went into World War II news organizations were asked to avoid mentioning certain kinds of information, like ship movements. (The Kennedy administration did the same thing during this year's Cuban crisis.) Information controls tightened as the World War II defense program progressed. Once in the war, censorship began again.

After the hot war came the cold war, far more secrecy was needed, and was imposed by the government, than in any previous peacetime period. President Truman's administration wrestled with plans for withholding certain information, the so-called "classified" material. In 1951 he finally issued regulations for such classification. They were too sweeping, needed revision.

GOOFY SITUATION

In 1953 Eisenhower kept the plan but did revising, and more of it later. Yet in 1956 one Air Force official told Congress he estimated that perhaps one million government employees had authority to classify documents. To make things goofier some documents couldn't be declassified unless the original classifier approved, although by then he might have been out of the government and even his agency abolished.

Kennedy got up to his neck in news blackout when the Cuban rebels in 1961 made their tragic U.S.-backed attempt to invade their homeland. For a few days top American officials, from Kennedy down, professed innocence and ignorance about help for the rebels. (A somewhat similar blackout occurred in 1960 under the Eisenhower administration when the American U2 plane was shot down over the Soviet Union.)

TAKES FULL BLAME
Then suddenly Kennedy took full blame for the invasion fiasco. Three days later he went before the American Newspaper Publishers Association and urged "self-restraint" on matters involving national security. He suggested some voluntary form of it.

Then came the 1962 crisis over Russian missiles in Cuba. This time Kennedy's team truly "managed" the news. This was admitted by Arthur Sylvester, assistant secretary of defense for public affairs, who frankly said the administration manipulated news as part of its "weaponry." Newsmen hotly criticized him for this. He spent a lot of time trying to explain his phrasing. But in between times three things happened:

Abbottstown

MRS. DELLA BUTT

ABBOTTSTOWN — The 500 Card Club met recently at the home of Rodger Wildasin, with Mrs. Ralph Dolheimer, hostess. Prizes were won by Mrs. Bernard Anthony, Mrs. Rodger Wildasin, Mrs. Wilford Mummert, Mrs. George Wildasin, Mrs. Preston Rickrode Jr. and Mrs. Virgie Allland. The annual Card Club banquet will be held December 29 at Lincoln View Restaurant. Sidney Sigola, R. 1, is a patient in the York Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Harlackner have moved from Abbottstown R. 1 to Dover R. 2.

The annual Christmas banquet of Ladies Aid of Emmanuel United Church of Christ will be held at the Victory Restaurant, Hanover, Friday, at 6:30 p.m. There will be an exchange of gifts.

The annual Advent Workshop of Emmanuel United Church of Christ will be held Sunday afternoon from 2 to 4 o'clock.

The Eveready Class will sponsor a party for the family and children of the class of Emmanuel United Reformed Church of Christ Saturday evening, December 15.

The Christmas Eve and Candlelight service will be conducted December 24 at Emmanuel United Church of Christ and the children's Christmas exercises will be held Sunday morning, December 23.

Local hunters who have left for mountain camps include: John Smith, LeRoy Witters and Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Butt.

The annual Ladies Auxiliary banquet of Abbottstown Fire Company will be held in the Hampton Fire Company social hall December 12. All who wish to attend are urged to make reservations immediately with Mrs. Faber Wildasin.

The Abbottstown Lions Club will meet at the Altland House December 13 at 6:30 p.m. The club is conducting the annual Christmas tree sale.

Twenty Luther League members attended the rally Sunday evening in St. Mark Lutheran Church, York.

The Lutheran Church Council will meet December 11 at 7:30 o'clock in the church.

St. John's Lutheran Church School honored 69 members on Sunday for their attendance at 50 or more sessions during the year.

The White House, at the peak of the Cuban business, asked the wire news services and television and radio networks to use caution and discretion with 12 categories of information, such as ship movements. The White House withdrew this request when the crisis subsided.

Sylvester told Pentagon officials and the State Department told its people to report the substance of every interview with newsmen. This got a hot denunciation from newsmen, too.

The State Department subsequently dropped its order, or so it said. But Sylvester refused to backdown on his. Rather, he said the Pentagon is giving out more information now than it ever did. In the past 22 months, he said, the number of its news releases has increased 40 per cent.

Griddler-Hunter Has Heart Attack

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Rudy Hayes, 26, linebacker for the Pittsburgh Steelers of the National Football League, remained in fair condition today after suffering a heart attack while hunting deer.

However, a spokesman said the condition of the Pickens, S.C., player was improving.

Hayes, a four year NFL veteran, was stricken Tuesday while hunting near Uniontown, about 50 miles south of here. HE was in a party that included teammates Buzz Nutter and Clendon Thomas.

Hayes, a former Clemson star, had been inactive most of the season because of a knee injury. He returned to the active list last weekend and played briefly against the St. Louis Cardinals.

FIRE CAUSES BLAST

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Fire officials say a natural gas leak may have caused the violent explosion that rocked the Ohio State University district Monday, and wrecked a dining hall under construction in a new dormitory complex.

The blast injured nine workmen, shattered scores of windows over a radius of several blocks and may have caused structural damage to six other buildings being constructed in the dormitory complex.

POPE IMPROVES

VATICAN CITY (AP)—Vatican sources said Tuesday Pope John XXIII, steadily recovering from a stomach ailment and serious anemia, might be able to resume holding audiences next Monday.

Vatican sources said if the Pope continued to gain this week, he probably would take at least some active part in the two big Vatican ceremonies this weekend.

These will be the ceremonies closing the first phase of the Roman Catholic Ecumenical Council on Saturday, and a canonization ceremony on Sunday.

CRIPPLE BAGS DEER

HARRISVILLE, W.Va., (AP)—Ted Cox, a Harrisville jeweler who hunts from a wheel chair, bagged a deer on the opening day of the season in West Virginia.

Cox has shot his season limit of one deer three times in the past four years. He made his kill Monday about 15 miles south of here.

CATANIA, Sicily (AP) — Mt. Etna erupted Monday night and blasted four new volcanic vents on the northeast side of the 10,758-foot high central crater. Rock and volcanic dust were hurled high into the air.

JERUSALEM (AP) — Prayers for rain are being said twice daily in Israeli synagogues to combat unseasonable hot dry weather that has brought anxiety to local farmers.

The Kansas City Athletics took advantage over the last place Washington Senators, winning their season series by a wide margin. The count was 15 games to 3.

SALINGER SAYS NEWS BLACKOUT OK

PITTSBURGH (AP)—The Kennedy Administration's news blackout during the Cuban crisis was "deliberate and premeditated" but legitimate information was not suppressed, says Presidential Press Secretary Pierre Salinger. Salinger, speaking at a Pittsburgh journalism awards banquet, Tuesday night, admitted tight security restrictions were placed on two phases of the crisis.

The first restriction—from the time the Russian missiles were discovered in Cuba on Oct. 15 until the President's address to the nation Oct. 22—was "designed to permit the administration the freest hand in dealing with the missile menace and to give us the opportunity of the element of surprise," Salinger said.

LIVES AT STAKE

He said the other restriction was to conceal the movement of troops and war equipment.

"American lives were at stake should this government have been compelled to take further action," he added.

Salinger said, "Information has never been more accessible than it is today." But he criticized the newspapers themselves for what he termed irresponsibility in their own ranks.

"Only the other day a major chain of newspapers headlined across the nation the story that Soviet planes were over-flying the southeastern states of the United States," Salinger said. "This story is totally and absolutely without foundation. The Defense Department with almost regular monotony has stated this over a period of several weeks."

Salinger also charged the press misinterpreted a remark made by Arthur Sylvester, assistant secretary of defense in charge of public affairs.

On Oct. 30 Sylvester said: "News flowing from actions taken by the government is part of the weaponry. In the kind of world we live in the generation of news by actions taken by the government becomes one weapon in a strained situation. The results, in my opinion, justify the methods we use."

Salinger said: "What Mr. Sylvester was saying—and I know of no one who would disagree—is that when the government speaks in time of crisis, what it says and when it says it, is extremely important to the overall policy of government."

GUARD ELUDES REDS

BERLIN (AP)—An East German border guard changed out of his uniform, tucked his baby under his arm and led six refugees to sanctuary in West Berlin Tuesday.

West police said the Vopo, as the Red guards are nicknamed, knew how to get through the tangle of wire barricades on Berlin's northern border because he was on duty there.

DEATHS

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
SHELTON, Conn. (AP)—George H. E. Smith, 64, lawyer, author and political analyst, died Monday of a heart attack. Smith was a former staff director and secretary of the Republican Policy Committee in the U.S. Senate. Smith, who was assistant professor in the Institute of International Studies at Yale University from 1937 to 1941, was born in Astoria, N.Y.

OLD LYME, Conn. (AP)—William Seaver Woods, 90, editor-in-chief of the old Literary Digest from 1897 to 1933, died Monday after a short illness. He served as editor of the New York State Journal of Medicine from 1934 to 1940.

DELRAY BEACH, Fla. (AP)—The Rt. Rev. Benjamin F. P. Ivins, 88, Episcopal bishop of Milwaukee from 1925 to 1952, died Sunday. He was ordained in 1909 and was dean of Nashodah Theological Seminary from 1921 to 1925.

NAIROBI, Kenya (AP)—Another new African nation barred Sen. Allen Ellender today. Tanganyika banned the entry of the Louisiana Democrat, as Uganda did Monday.

Tanganyika's ban was understood to be for the same reason as Uganda's—Ellender's remarks in Southern Rhodesia that he had seen no part of Africa ready for self-government and that "the average African is incapable of leadership without white assistance."

RED BOASTS OF ROCKET POWER

MOSCOW (AP)—The commander of Soviet rocket forces claimed today that the Soviet Union continues to lead the United States in the field of powerful military rockets.

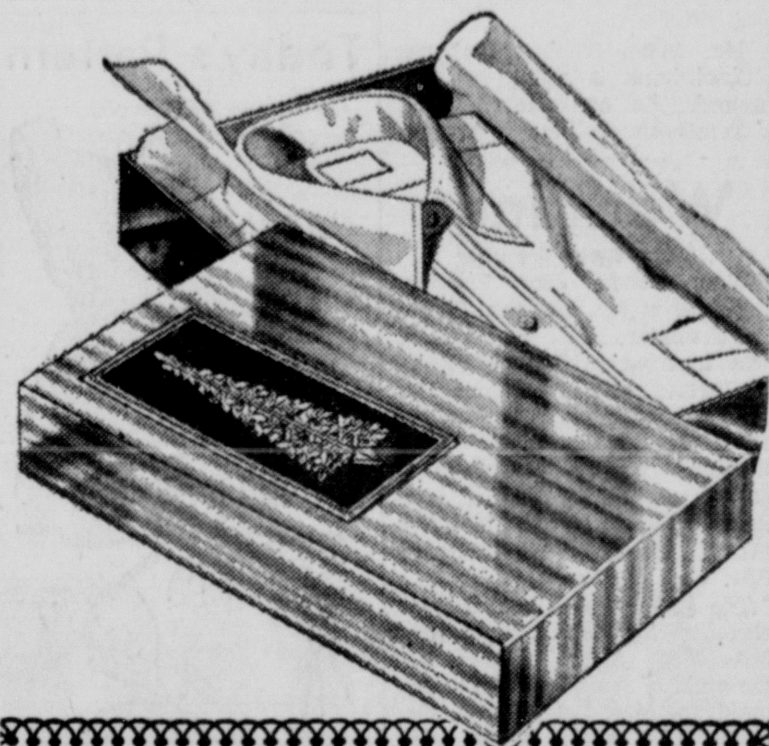

Marshal Sergei Biryuzov's statement in the military newspaper Krasnaya Zvezda (Red Star) apparently was an answer to recent statements by American leaders that it is the Soviet Union, and not the United States, which suffers from a missile gap.

The British Institute for Strategic Studies, in a report published Nov. 9, estimated that the Russians had about 75 operational intercontinental ballistic missiles, compared with 450-500 in the hands of the West. The report said Soviet leaders apparently had decided to concentrate on building a bigger strategic striking force.

The institute said, however, that the Soviet rockets can carry more destructive warheads than such U.S. equivalents as the Titan. It added that the Russians have developed a more accurate ICBM and it should be deployed by next year.

BIGLER HIGH WILL PRESENT 3 MUSICALS

Students from the Biglerville Junior and Senior High Schools will present three Christmas programs in the school auditorium beginning December 14. The new schedule replaces the single annual presentation of previous years and, according to Charles L. Yost, principal, gives each group an opportunity to present a complete program.

The Junior and Senior high school bands will share the December 14 program, which is scheduled for 2:30 p.m. The Junior band of 110 pieces will present "Festival of Youth," "La Campanella," "Climb Every Mountain" and "Coronation March."

The second part of the program will be presented by the Senior band of 100 pieces and will include "Christmas Festival," "Joshua," "Semper Fidelis" and "Bugler's Holiday," which will feature the trumpet trio of Samuel Bucher, Richard Guise and Richard Dull.

The second Christmas program will feature the Senior Choir of 85 voices at the annual open house at the school on December 18 at 7:30 o'clock in the evening. Supported by the Senior band, the choir will present a Fred Waring arrangement of "Song of Christmas," featuring sopranos Jane Wright and Carolyn Starry, and baritone Ray Van Dyke. Carol Crum and Thomas Osborn will also appear as soloists.

The Senior band will present "Christmas Festival" and "Joshua" at the evening performance which is open to the public.

The last day of school before the Christmas recess will provide the entire student body the opportunity to witness a performance of the combined Junior and Senior Choirs of 115 voices in a program of Christmas music. The program will be held at 2:30 in the afternoon, December 21. Parents and other visitors are invited to attend the event.

Peter Asquith Finds Vienna Beautiful Despite Hardships

Peter Asquith, son of Prof. and Mrs. Dean Asquith, Biglerville, is spending his junior year of college in Vienna, Austria, under the auspices of the Institute of European Studies. He studies his courses at the institute in the English language and other courses in German at the University of Vienna. He also is taking advanced German at the Austro-American Institute.

His courses this term are Deutsche Sprache fur Vorgesetzte, Naturphilosophie der Gegenwart, Die Philosophischen Grundlagen der Mathematik, Soviet System of Government, Metaphysics, Contemporary Thought, History of Political Thought and History of Economic Thought.

Institute students will spend the Christmas holidays at a ski lodge in the Alps. They are permitted to tour parts of Europe during school vacations and are encouraged to visit areas of individual interest.

PETER ASQUITH

The school provides no dormitories, and students live with native families approved by the school. The climate is cold and wet, and heating facilities are poor. Electricity and water are rationed by the housefrau as carefully as the heat, and appointments for a weekly bath must be made in advance.

Young Asquith's letters to his parents are vivid and interesting and describe the varied experiences he is enjoying and his attitude to his surroundings in Austria. His father is an entomologist at the Arendtsville Research Lab of the Pennsylvania State University.

Following are excerpts from some of his letters: "The Zweite Bezirk (two district) in which I live is located between the Trans-Joseph Kai (the canal) and the Donau (Danube). I live much closer to the Donau and contrary to popular opinion it is not at all blue. It takes me half hour by strassenbahn (street car) to get to school and costs me three schillings or 12 cents. Austria is currently having an inflation and prices are continually on the rise. It's very strange, a shirt costs 40 cents to launder, a TV costs $350, a meal with wine and dessert at the right place costs 56 cents, a good seat at an opera, concert or play costs 60 cents and goes as cheap as 20 cents, clothes are much more expensive than in the States. Books are very high.

COUNTY FRUIT SELECTED FOR XMAS GIFTS

Adams County apples are going around the world these days in Christmas packages.

Special gift packs containing 12 apples to a full bushel are gaining in popularity as Christmas gifts for commercial firms and are providing appealing personal gifts for friends in foreign countries.

The custom began shortly after World War II and gained momentum about 1956 in Adams County with improved production and modern storage facilities. Upwards of 5,000 bushels of local fruit are mailed annually to such distant points as Norway, Holland, England, Spain, Colombia, South America and islands in the Atlantic and Pacific.

CREATE DEMAND

In recent years growers have created a demand for Adams County pears, peaches and plums as well as apples. Fruit is kept in storage until shipment so that it arrives at its destination in excellent condition. Shipped by refrigerated carriers, growers make every effort to schedule shipments on fast liners to avoid unnecessary delays in movement. In a few cases small gift packages are sent by air freight.

Orders begin moving out of Adams County about November 1 to the more distant points and local orders are filled by December 15. Growers report that 90 per cent of the total volume of gift packages are mailed between November 1 and December 10.

While the nation's fruit industry has specialized in gift packages for about 20 years, this has become a new outlet for local growers and packers within the past six years.

hold of her elbow. You always take off gloves and shake hands when meeting or leaving an acquaintance.

"Unfortunately many American tourists are loud, rude and obnoxious. I will give the institute credit for having given an extensive orientation on how not to appear obviously American and how to blend into the European scenery. I believe that is the only way really to get to know what Europe is.

"The American imitation of the German frankfurter or wurstel is a poor job. These things are really good. I could eat them all day especially with European mustard and pickles.

VIENNA WOODS FABULOUS

"Der Weiner Wals (the Vienna Woods) are fabulous. I spent a whole day wandering through them. I've rarely enjoyed a day more thoroughly. I walked through the vineyards there to Grinzing where Francis and I bought all kinds of bread, cheese, pickle and meats. I have been to the Hungarian-Austrian border and have seen the 'Iron Curtain.' It is something! The actual border is marked by candy-cane poles. About two yards behind them is a five-foot-high barbed wire fence. This is followed by about five yards of mines and then the process of barbed wire and mines is repeated through 50 to 75 yards. About every 200 yards there are watch towers. Dogs and guards with automatic rifles patrol about every 10 minutes. The watch towers contain machine guns, two of which were trained on us while we were there. On the Austrian side of the border one could see vineyards, cornfields, and houses, but on the Hungarian side there was nothing as far as you could see besides the armaments and fallow fields. It seems strange to see 'Vote Communist' signs all over the place.

CAMPAIGN POSTERS
"The Communists are screaming bloody murder over Cuba and stating that the Russians are the great preservers of the peace. It's something new to put campaign posters up for, but I don't think it's going to do them any good. They are also yelling over the 'Der Spiegel' affair in West Germany.

"Thursday was a national holiday, 'All Saints Day' and Friday was a Universitat holiday, 'All Souls Day.' On Thursday with the exception of the constant stream of Strassenbahns going to the cemetery (I think people in cities go to cemeteries to work out their frustrated gardening ambitions) the immense city looked deserted. Sundays are bad enough. Ninety per cent of the gas stations and restaurants are closed as well as all stores. A typical question an Austrian might ask an American is 'What's a Sunday newspaper?' On holidays everything is closed except the Strassenbahns and the museums which suddenly become free so I spent four delightful hours at the Naturhistorisches Museum (Natural History). It had the best organization of the animal kingdom according to phyla and classes that I've seen and its explanations of the reasons for the different phyla and classes are the clearest that I've seen. The collection was really monstrous. The insects were in a room bigger than the Biglerville High gym in closely spaced cases. If you would stop to look at everything closely it would take years. After I waded through the whole animal kingdom, I saw some electric models of the human brain and then proceeded to the geological exhibits which even went into the electron bindings in crystal structure. People may complain about the monarchies but the Hapsburgs are directly responsible for the theaters, opera and museums here in Vienna.

"Christmas is a religious holiday where presents are exchanged within the family, but on December 5 and December 6 a man who looks like our devil comes around and whips bad children and leaves coal in the shoes of neutral children and candy and nuts in the shoes of good children."

Adams County apples in attractive gift packages are available for shipment around the world in quantities of a dozen to a full bushel. With the apples packed in shredded Christmas paper, the packages are colorful and contain the traditional "Season's Greetings" from Adams County.

Dear Mr. Editor:

The Retail Merchants in Gettysburg have requested that Borough Council suspend operation of its meters for several days prior to Christmas. This request is certainly reasonable, particularly when we consider that neighboring boroughs afford a similar courtesy to persons shopping at their stores.

However, Gettysburg Borough Council, of which I am a member,

MECO SELLS BOND ISSUE

Metropolitan Edison Company, with its utility system headquarters in Reading, today in New York City sold $15 million in double A-rated bonds at an annual net interest cost of 4.302 per cent. The 30-year bonds will be due December 1, 1962.

Merrill, Lynch, Pierce, Fenner and Smith won today's issue with a bid of $101.21 for a 4 1/4 per cent coupon. Other bids came from Byth and Company, Inc., $100.60 for a 4 1/4 per cent coupon; First Boston Corporation, $100.59 for a 4 1/4 per cent coupon; Halsey, Stuart and Company, Inc., $100.72 for a 4 1/4 per cent coupon; Kidder, Peabody and Company and Drexel and Company (joint bid), $100.71 for a 4 1/4 per cent coupon; Kuhn, Loeb and Company, Inc., $100.91 for a 4 1/4 per cent coupon, and White, Weld and Company, $100.79 for a 4 1/4 per cent coupon.

The percentage of this issue is lower by .69 per cent than the last double-A rated Metropolitan Edison Company bond issue, also for $15 million in 1960, payable was advised that there is no provision in the Borough Code or Borough Ordinances by which it can lawfully suspend operation of the parking meters. As this is so, and as Council is obligated to work within a framework of law, Council cannot be criticized for refusing to violate established rules.

Nevertheless, I must record a strong protest to the shortsightedness of some of my fellow councilmen. Suspending operation of the parking meters for several days will hurt no one; the citizens will have no objections, the merchants are requesting this action and the only loss will be several days revenue from meters. Under these circumstances I feel it is clearly the duty of Borough Council to amend our meter ordinance to provide for holiday parking in conformity with the practice in nearby Boroughs. Council cannot relieve itself of responsibility for not affording reasonable advantages to our townspeople and merchants when so simple a solution is at hand.

Most sincerely,
JOHN D. THRUSH
Councilman
Second Ward

PENNSY'S 79TH WON FAME IN 2 WORLD WARS

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — The 79th, Pennsylvania's Cross of Lorraine Division, now being reorganized and trimmed down, won fame in two world wars.

The division, a reserve outfit with units in Pennsylvania, Maryland and Delaware, was activated at Ft. Meade, Md. in 1917.

It won fame in its first action. Manned largely by untried recruits, the division was assigned on Sept. 26, 1918 to the attack of Montfaucon, which was the backbone of the German defense in the Meuse-Argonne. After 30 hours of heavy fighting, Montfaucon fell. The unit is known for the Cross of Lorraine appearing on its insignia.

RECALLED IN '42

The division was deactivated after the World War I armistice, but was recalled to service in June 1942 and began training for the invasion of Europe.

The unit landed in Normandy and captured Fort Du Roule at Cherbourg and took 6,000 prisoners. In August, 1944, the 79th participated in a high-speed advance across Belgium.

It gained wide attention, however, for the manner it withstood counter attacks led by Field Marshal Gerd von Rundstedt at the Maginot Line villages of Hatten and Rittershofen. The division withstood the attack of two and a half German divisions.

The division has four times received the Croix de Guerre, France's highest military decoration. Many individual members have received U.S. awards for valor.

After the end of World War II, the division was deactivated briefly, then reformed in 1947 as an active reserve unit.

10 Yanks, 3 Others Held For Plotting Against Cuba

KEY WEST, Fla. (P) — Thirteen anti-Castro sympathizers sat in jail today 90 miles from Cuba, charged with violating the Neutrality Act.

The 13 — including two Cubans and a Canadian — were picked up early Tuesday on a tiny island in the Florida Keys and accused of preparing an expedition against Cuba.

U.S. Commissioner William V. Albury called the 13, 10 of whom are American citizens, "just an adventure group that could get our country into trouble."

HOLD FOR BAIL

Albury ordered the 13 turned over to U.S. District Court in Miami, Fla., and held them on $1,000 bond each.

In reply to the charges, one of the group, James A. Lewis, 29, of San Francisco, Calif., asked, "Does it matter who violates neutrality, the government or us?"

"We have no name and belong to no other anti-Castro faction," said the apparent leader of the group, Gerald Patrick Hemming Jr., 25, Los Angeles, Calif. Hemming indicated, however, he knew of other anti-Castro groups training in the Keys.

TWO CUBANS

The Cubans identified themselves as Eleno O. Alvarez, 26, and Remigio Arce, 43, both of Miami. The Canadian was William J. Dempsey, 21, Stratford, Ont.

The others, all identified as U.S. citizens, were Ronald P. Ponce De Leon, 22, Lawrence J. Howard Jr., 27, Pico Rivera, Calif.; Edwin A. Collins, 27, Justin J. Wilson, 26, William Seymour, 25, Edmund Colby, 31, and Joseph C. Garman, 32, all of a single Miami address, and Roy E. Hargraves, 22, also of Miami.

HARRISBURG (AP) — Pennsylvania would lose 18 National Guard units under the Defense Department's proposed reorganization plan, Gov. Lawrence indicated Tuesday night.

He said the plan would reduce Pennsylvania National Guard units from 171 to 153, but continue the authorized strength at just under 18,000 officers and men.

TWO YOUTHS DIE IN CRASH

MILTON, Pa. (AP) — Two youths were killed and a young man and young woman were injured today in a one-car crash north of Picture Rock in Lycoming County.

State police said the car apparently was traveling at high speed on Rt. 220 when it left the road and slammed into a tree about 1:20 a.m.

Killed were the driver, Warren L. Walters, 22, of Picture Rock, and one of his three passengers, Dale Johnson, 21, Hughesville.

Barbara Ann Barto, 17, Hughesville, was reported in serious condition at Muncy Valley Hospital, Muncy, with a skull fracture and ruptured spleen.

Less seriously hurt and in the same hospital was Calvin Bailey, 21, Picture Rock, with a broken wrist and shock.

PEOPLE IN THE NEWS

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The Countess of Coventry — the former Mimi Medart of St. Louis, Mo. — won a divorce in London on the ground that her husband misbehaved with an unidentified woman.

Coventry, 28, did not contest the legal action by his wife, 27. They were married in 1955 and have a son, Viscount Deerhurst, 5.

An heir to the extinct Bulgarian throne was born in Madrid, Spain, to Margarita Gomez Acebo, Spanish commoner wife of exiled King Simeon.

The king went to Spain many years ago and married Margarita last Jan. 20 at Lausanne, Switzerland. The child will be named Karam, prince of Tinovo, a title given only to Bulgarian heir princes.

The President's cup Regatta was first held on a quiet September afternoon in 1926.

$12,000 Position For Election Loser

HARRISBURG (P) — Stephen McCann, who gave up his seat from Greene County and the House Democratic leadership post to make an unsuccessful run for lieutenant governor, has been named to a $12,000-a-year position with the Legislative Budget and Finance Committee.

McCann's appointment, effective Dec. 1, was disclosed Tuesday as House Democratic leader Rep. Anthony J. Petrosky of Westmoreland County to succeed him as floor leader.

UNION OUSTS JIM PETRILLO

CHICAGO (AP) — The Chicago Federation of Musicians local apparently sounded taps Tuesday for James Caesar Petrillo, colorful nationally known labor leader, ousting him as president of the union — a job he had held for 40 years.

Petrillo, 70, who served 18 years as president of the American Federation of Musicians and was a vice president of the AFL-CIO before retiring in 1958, was defeated in an election of 3,400 members of the Chicago local.

The unofficial count, announced by John Kryszynski, chief judge of election, showed Petrillo lost in his bid for re-election by 186 votes.

The election, with only about one-third of the union's reported eligible members voting, marked the first time since 1933 that Petrillo was opposed for the presidency.

The unofficial vote, Kryszynski said, was 1,608 for Petrillo to 1,794 for Barney Richards.

Richards, 57, headed a group called the "Chicago Musicians for Union Democracy." Richards and his group had claimed Petrillo and his slate had failed to give the local the right kind of representation.

TO RETURN TO BASE — Navy wives and children evacuated from Guantanamo Bay naval base at the start of the Cuban missile and bomber crisis will be permitted to return soon, informed sources say.

About 2,800 wives and children of men stationed at Guantanamo were rushed back to the United States by ship and airplane on Oct. 22, just before President Kennedy announced the naval quarantine of offensive arms shipments to Communist Cuba.

This group watched as the first concrete was being poured on the Rt. 15 bypass near the Maryland state line. Left to right are shown Thomas Watters, construction engineer for District 8, and Paul Hampton and Jack Miller, not otherwise identified.

Labor Dispute Ties Up Nuclear Ship, Savannah

LONG BEACH, Calif. (AP) — The nuclear ship Savannah, whose reactors can carry it whole circuits of the globe without refueling, is tied up here today by a labor dispute.

The gleaming white freighter has been idled by a controversy over wages paid its engineers. They are specially trained nuclear experts, and can't be replaced in a union hiring hall like most crewmen.

The $53.5-million ship was to have started Tuesday on an 8-day training cruise — to train new engineers.

According to one story — by the Baltimore Sun's maritime editor, Helen Delich — 29 nuclear reactor engineers aboard the Savannah have quit, but are staying aboard for safety reasons, until other engineers can be found to mind the potent reactor deep in the Savannah's engine room.

The engineers are members of the AFL-CIO affiliated Marine Engineers Beneficial Association and sources here said the issue is being negotiated in New York headquarters.

James McKinley, port agent for the National Maritime Union, said the engineers said they were dissatisfied with salary provisions established by an arbitration board before the vessel left Yorktown, Va., on its maiden voyage four months ago.

The Savannah is operated jointly by the U.S. Atomic Energy Commission and the States Marine Line, with the line handling all labor matters.

Pope Blesses Crowd, Says He Is Better

VTICAN CITY (P) — Pope John XXIII appeared in his apartment window today and told a crowd of bishops and Romans in St. Peter's Square that he is getting well.

It was the 81-year-old pontiff's second public appearance since he was confined to bed eight days ago by a stomach ailment and anemia.

The Pope stood in his open window for almost seven minutes at noon to give his benediction to the crowd below — a substitute for his regular Wednesday general audience which his illness had forced him to cancel last week and again today. He had appeared in the window briefly last Sunday also, to bless the crowd and tell them "health is returning."

mitted to return soon, informed sources say.

About 2,800 wives and children of men stationed at Guantanamo were rushed back to the United States by ship and airplane on Oct. 22, just before President Kennedy announced the naval quarantine of offensive arms shipments to Communist Cuba.

facilities for greatest efficiency. The health room will be relocated in the science suite, which will include biology and chemistry labs and classrooms.

The present health room will become an office for the supervising principal and the present cafeteria will become a library. The present library will become a classroom, and the present kitchen will be used as a faculty room.

The old 4-room high school building in Fairfield, which has been used for Kindergarten, First, Second and Third Grades, will be closed and classes will move to the new elementary wing. An enclosed playground for kindergarten pupils will be built on the town side of the new building. A room for special education also will be included in the elementary section.

ROOM FOR 1,000

The new additions will accommodate 1,000 students, according to Principal Harold R. Blair. He said classes are now being held in the cafeteria and hallways because of overcrowded conditions. The district has an enrollment of 750 students and serves the borough and Hamiltonban and Liberty Twp.

The new building also will make possible the closing of a two-room school at Orrtanna, where 65 pupils attend. The enrollment at the old building in Fairfield is 140 kindergarten and first three graders.

Contracts also specify the installation of a sewage disposal plant for the school.

The original high school was opened in Fairfield about 1910 and provided a two-year course, later became a three-year high school. After it was closed in 1947 students were required to attend high school in Gettysburg or in Washington Twp., near Waynesboro. Nineteen Seniors were graduated in the 1947 class.

BUILT IN 1928

The present high school building was erected by Hamiltonban Twp. as a consolidated elementary school in 1928 and was absorbed as a high school in 1950 when it became the Fairfield High School. Adding one grade a year, the first Senior class was graduated in 1954 with 27 students.

Hamiltonban Twp. in 1928 operated 13 one-room schools and Liberty Twp. had six. Through a program of organized closings, Cold Springs became the last country school to be closed in 1950.

The proposed addition will be completed by January 2, 1964, and is expected to accommodate education needs through 1970 when, census figures indicate, the school will have an enrollment of 1,000 elementary and high school students.

HAVE 34 TEACHERS

The school presently employs 34 teachers, supervising principal and Richard Straup, high school principal, and Robert Reindollar, elementary principal.

Members of the joint board are: Fairfield: Earl B. Hartzell, Robert E. Newman, Rev. Otto J. Kroeger, John J. Reindollar and Oliver B. Spence. Hamiltonban Twp.: Lloyd E. Benner, John G. Luntz, George Musselman, George W. Myers and A. B. Ross. Liberty Twp.: Emory Flohr, Russell V. Hull, Stanley Kugler, Joseph T. Lowe and Ray Sowers. Elementary teachers are: First Grade: Mindette Minnich, Waynesboro; Marjorie Snowberger, Gettysburg; Second Grade: Marion Mickle, Gettysburg R. 3; Ruthetta Sheads, Fairfield; Third Grade: Hazel Carson and Margaret Kepner, Fairfield; Fourth Grade: Sara Miller, Fairfield; Gladys Walter, Gettysburg R. 3; Fifth Grade: Janetta Himes, Gettysburg R. D.; William Mickle, Iron Springs; Sixth Grade: Nellie Pentz, Waynesboro. Kindergarten: Mildred Reindollar, Fairfield. Special ed: Carol Kiser, Biglerville R.

High school teachers are: Gary Bechtel, Fairfield R. 6, industrial arts; Anthony Delzingaro, Gettysburg, history, English and civics; Barbara Devlin, Fairfield, physical education, science, health; Gwendolyn Hall, Gettysburg R. 6, library, typing, English; James Hanawalt, Fairfield, commercial; Robert Leiter, Waynesboro, vocational agriculture, vocational mathematics; John McAndrews, Fairfield R. 1, physical education, health, driver training and history; Helen McClellan, Fairfield, English, Latin, French; Joseph Mullin, Fairfield, special education; Richard Shellman, Fairfield, science, biology, chemistry; Lorraine Sites, Fairfield R. 1, reading, English; Paul Sponseller, New Oxford, geography, history, science; James Strock, Chambersburg R. 2, Senior mathematics; Teena Felsing, Fairfield, Junior mathematics; Betty Bishop, Gettysburg R. 2, home economics. Substitute teachers: Mabel Bream, Gettysburg R. 3; Patricia Brown, Gettysburg, Elva Kroeger, Fairfield, and Carolyn Neely, Fairfield R. 2. Special services: Esther Crist, Fairfield R. 1, school nurse; Shirley Graf, Lutheran Seminary dorm, vocal music; Charles Rogers, Gettysburg, band and instrumental music; Thomas Brown, Gettysburg, art.

The office staff includes Faye Slusser, Fairfield, R. 1; Elizabeth Dick, Greenstone, and Janice White, Fairfield R. 2.

BARRIERS ARE FREER TRADE ARE FORESEEN

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst

NEW YORK (AP)—Protectionism is far from dead—on either side of the Atlantic or Pacific. And Christian A. Herter as the U.S. government's foreign trade czar may have plenty of trouble translating the President's new tariff bargaining powers into the freer trade it envisions.

American manufacturers and unions who see their sales or jobs trimmed or threatened by foreign competition will be heard from, in and out of Congress. And the new law offers various ways of protecting them.

The European Common Market is acclaimed for its striking efforts to lower trade barriers. But its aim is to achieve one big tariff free club—for members only. It plans to maintain at least some tariff barriers against the rest of the world, including U.S. manufacturers and farmers.

BRITAIN YEARN

And in recent weeks the spirit of keeping these walls fairly high has been reported to be rising.

Britain has been yearning to join the club. But protectionism is far from dead in the United Kingdom either, and certainly is very much alive in the British Commonwealth. Political opposition in Britain to joining the Common Market is growing louder, and is becoming bitter in many of the Commonwealth nations.

Damage to British industry, labor, farmers, and to Commonwealth producers is stressed by the protectionists.

On the Continent there is stubborn resistance to letting Britain into the club on terms that French, German or Italian businessmen and farmers fear might favor competitive British products or commodities from the Commonwealth nations.

And hints have been going out that the Common Market, because of its fast growth rate of industrial production and consumer markets, thinks it is in a better bargaining situation than the United States on the question of trade barriers. Some cocky Europeans are saying that Americans need access to their markets more than they need lower tariffs here.

So Herter, a former secretary of state under President Dwight D. Eisenhower, will need plenty of bargaining savvy in the post to which he was named recently by President Kennedy.

Those who saw the passage of the Trade Expansion Act as opening a new trading era in jig time are now beginning to set back their schedules.

SLOW PROCESS

Tariff bargaining is always a long and slow process. Too many interests are involved, on both sides of the table, for the negotiators to act fast.

This time the bargaining may be the harder for several reasons. The desire of Europeans and Japanese to protect their growing industries; the costs of production that are rising faster in Europe now than they are here, and therefore make the price protection of tariffs seem more attractive; and the very nature of the new look in world trade—the trend toward trading blocs in various parts of the world, which increase consumer markets at home and build up the volume of goods that can be exported.

KILLED IN CRASH

MILL HALL, Pa. (AP)—John W. Shope, 19, Monument, Centre County was killed at 7:10 a.m. Tuesday when his car collided with a pickup truck on Route 220 two miles west of Mill Hall.

State police said Shope was driving west on the highway with a passenger, Blair Heverly, 44, also of Monument, when his car collided with the eastbound truck driven by Raymond DeRalph, 19, Reynoldsville, a student at the Williamsport Technical School.

Heverly was admitted to the Lock Haven Hospital in serious condition and DeRalph was admitted for treatment of shock and a possible leg fracture.

FOG AND HAZE SLOW TRAFFIC

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Fog and a smoky haze hampered air travel and auto traffic in southeastern Pennsylvania early Tuesday.

The haze was caused by unseasonable temperatures and lack of sufficient wind said the weather bureau.

Numerous flights from closed New York airports were routed here. However North Philadelphia airport was closed by fog at 11 Monday night. Air traffic was hampered at International Airport.

Speed limits on both the New Jersey and Pennsylvania Turnpikes were reduced from 60 to 35 miles an hour because of the haze.

ARREST YORK COMMISSIONER

YORK, Pa. (AP)—Harry C. Busser, chairman of the York County commissioners, has been charged formally with malfeasance, misfeasance and misbehavior in office.

Busser, a Democrat, appeared voluntarily Monday before Alderman H. Gellard Fickes to accept an arrest warrant obtained by Dist. Atty. Daniel Shoemaker, a Republican.

Busser posted $500 bond pending a hearing Dec. 11.

Shoemaker claimed Busser and the other Democratic member of the county board, Emory Kilgore, sold county stationery to the York County Democratic Committee and permitted the party organization to use county equipment to print address labels.

Kilgore did not appear Monday. Busser said he understood his colleague went deer hunting, and may not be aware of the charges made over the weekend by Shoemaker.

JOHNSTOWN, Pa. (AP)—Firemen continued battling a 200-acre forest fire Tuesday on Irvin Hill near Waterford in Westmoreland County.

Firemen, who worked through the night, said it was hoped the blaze could be brought under control later today.
